PREMIER PADEREWSKI ASKS ALLIES TO CLEAR EASTERN SITUATION

Polish Leader Appears Before Supreme Council; Tells Correspondent Germany Trying to Gain in East Because She Lost in West

Paris, Sept. 5.—"Germany, defeated in the west has turned to the east, where she is waging a battle with the hope of achieving the victory she could not win on the other fronts," Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish Premier, declared to-day to the Associated Press while discussing Polish conditions. M. Paderewski appeared before the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference to-day and discussed the critical situation in Teschen and Silesia.

"In Upper Silesia, East Prussia, Lithuania, along the Bolshevik front in the vicinity of Minsk and along the Ukrainian front Polish armies are forced to face armed enemies," he continued. "Where these enemies are not Germans, they are aided by Germans, who are urging the Bolsheviks forward in every way to embarrass Poland. Our new Government, with limited supplies and little clothing for its army, finds the situation desperate."

"Until the German treaty is ratified we cannot get the foreign troops necessary to stabilize the situation and hold the plebiscites in the sections of ceded territory. In the meantime Polish workmen are being beaten, abused and killed by German troops in Silesia. The Poles are eager to rush into Silesia to avenge the wrongs and it is difficult to restrain our people."

Misrepresentations.
"German propagandists are twisting every fact between our troops and the Bolsheviks into Jewish pogroms."

"Our people have resisted the blandishments of Bolshevism so far, but there is a limit to our endurance. We hope for a speedy ratification of the treaty and pray for the steady influence of Allied troops in the harassed districts where plebiscites are to be held."

WELCOME CITIZENS ON BOARD U. S. SHIPS

Canadian Club Head Is in Receipt of Invitation From Secretary Daniels

A cordial invitation is extended to all Victorians to visit the United States battleships New Mexico and Arkansas and the accompanying destroyers after they arrive off Victoria on September 11.

The time set by Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels will be from two o'clock to six o'clock. Mr. Daniels has conveyed this information in a telegram to John Cochrane, President of the Canadian Club. Mr. Cochrane, in a wire to the Secretary, had asked for this privilege to be accorded, and the following wire in reply from Mr. Daniels, received this morning, cordially extends an invitation to Victorians:

"Your message of September 5 just received. The ships which come with me to visit Victoria will be open to visitors, and I shall be greatly pleased if you will inform all your people that they are most cordially invited to come on board the ships while they are in your harbor during the afternoon of September 11 from two to six o'clock. I will be very glad if you will give this invitation wide publicity, as I am anxious for all of your people to see our ships."

CONGRESS WILL NOT CALL BIG STRIKE

No Such Move to Secure Bail For Winnipeg Strikers

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, made the following statement yesterday afternoon:

"The executive of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada intervened in an effort to secure the fixing of bail for the strikers incarcerated in Winnipeg. The Minister of Justice, speaking for the Cabinet, replied that the Government declined to interfere with the decision of the judge who heard the evidence, asserting that he was the only one who could grant bail."

"This Congress is opposed to strikes for political purposes, and also to the European syndicalist or One Big Union idea of a general national strike, or as it is explained in press dispatches, a stoppage of work, which under these circumstances is the same thing."

"The Congress, being a legislative body, has no power to authorize a strike, has never recommended one, and will not do so in this case."

U. M. W. Attitude.

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 5.—Unless the Winnipeg strike leaders now imprisoned are released on bail before September 17, Canada will be tied up from coast to coast by a gigantic strike embracing every industry under union control, according to a statement made to the Canadian Press to-day by J. B. MacLachlan, secretary of this district of the United Mine Workers of America.

MacLachlan represented the situation as serious in the extreme unless the authorities grant the Winnipeg men bail. The threatened strike would tie up the coal mines of this district and practically close down industry in Sydney.

Mass Meetings.
A gigantic mass meeting of District 26 is being arranged for Sunday next at Glacier Bay, to be addressed by R. F. Blackstone, of San Francisco, and Mr. MacLachlan.

It is probable that on the same day a similar meeting will be held in Sydney to discuss the Winnipeg situation.

25,000 MEN ARE IDLE IN FRANCE

Lille, France, Sept. 5.—Men engaged in reconstruction work in the Department of Pas de Calais have struck, demanding 17 francs for an eight-hour day instead of the existing average rate of 12½ francs. The strike committee estimates that 25,000 men are idle because of the trouble.

GERMANS DISPLAYING DESIRE TO OPPOSE WILL OF ALLIES

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The German reply to the note of the Allies with regard to representation of Austria in the German Reichsrath says the German peace delegation informed the Allies on May 27 that Germany had no intention of modifying the Austro-German boundaries by violence but could not undertake to oppose a German-Austrian spontaneous desire for union with Germany.

The Allies acknowledged receipt of this communication on June 16, the reply says, and therefore Germany felt authorized to insert Article 61 in the constitution.

The Supreme Council of the Peace Conference on September 2 sent a note couched in forcible terms to the German Government pointing out that Article 61 of the German constitution conflicted with Article 49 of the German peace treaty forbidding German interference in Austrian affairs. The article in the German constitution referred to provided for the representation of Austria in the German Reichsrath, and the Council demanded suppression of this article within a fortnight, declaring that otherwise the Allies would be compelled to undertake further action.

DIRECT ACTION WILL BE REJECTED

Virtually Certain British Labor Congress Will Not Adopt Scheme

Nationalization of Coal Mines and Railways Will Be Discussed

London, Sept. 5.—Among the scores of resolutions which will be submitted before the congress of trades unions of the United Kingdom at Glasgow, which will open next Monday, there will be two outstanding subjects which have been topics of the liveliest debate at all labor gatherings in recent months. They are the nationalization of industries such as the coal mines and railways, and the policy of "direct action," or the employment of a national strike as a weapon to enforce political demands.

Will Be Rejected.
It is now virtually certain that the policy of direct action will be rejected. It was originally advocated to compel the Government to abolish conscription, withdraw from the Russian military enterprises, liberate conscientious objectors and abstain from employing troops in industrial disputes. The Government already has considered these reforms, and since the whole country with the exception of the extremists is against "direct action," it is quite improbable that it will be adopted. The Government policy in the desired direction, and was, in fact, the actuating motive in the decision to liberate the conscientious objectors and withdraw from Russia.

HERTZOG'S PARTY PELTED WITH EGGS

South African Nationalists Treated Thus on Returning From Europe

Reuter'sburg, Sept. 5.—(Reuter's).—It had been intended to banquet General Hertzog and his party on the evening of their return to South Africa, but at the last moment, owing to anxiety in certain quarters, the arrangements were changed and the banquet was held in the afternoon.

The change was not known locally and Hertzog and the other guests entered without incident, but some inkling of the event must have leaked out for during the afternoon crowds of workers and others gathered to watch the Nationalist leaders leave the hall.

When they did they were pelted with rotten eggs. Hertzog himself did not appear, having left the building quietly beforehand. The crowd discharged snipers and sang the National Anthem, but eventually dispersed.

A proposed Nationalist meeting on the main square is now not likely to be held in view of the feeling among the workers.

Jellicoe Says Fisher May Mean Britain Should Have Bigger Navy

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—A special cable from Sydney, N. S. W., to The Vancouver Worker says:

"Unless the United Kingdom and the Dominions are prepared to put their hands in their pockets, it will not be possible to retain for the Empire that sea supremacy which every citizen of the Empire knows in his heart is vital to its existence," said Admiral Lord Jellicoe in a forceful speech delivered to a large and influential audience here to-day.

Lord Jellicoe went on to say that after reading the cable report of a letter written to The London Times by Lord Fisher, he was of the opinion that underlying Lord Fisher's demand for the scrapping of the present British navy was the idea that a bigger and more modern navy should be built.

BRITISH TROOPS RETURN HOME FROM NORTH RUSSIAN AREA

Archangel, Sept. 4.—Via London, Sept. 5.—(Reuter's).—The former Ambassadors and consuls who arrived here from Petrograd last year have left for England on the Kilkenan Castle, which also carries the last batch of conscript British troops.

The Russians have issued a proclamation to the effect that all Bolshevik prisoners are to be enrolled in the Russian national army. The most recently taken prisoners are well-conditioned and wear good great-coats.

The question has been referred to the Allied Commission in Paris.

Redfield, Secretary of Commerce of U.S. Will Give Up Post

Washington, Sept. 5.—William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce, has tendered his resignation to President Wilson and it has been accepted effective November 1. This was announced to-day officially.

Secretary Redfield, in announcing his resignation, said he found it necessary to give immediate attention to personal business affairs, adding that he was anxious to return to private life after spending more than eight years in Washington.

NEW UPRISING IN CAPITAL OF BAVARIA NOW IS FEARED

Geneva, Sept. 4.—Via London, Sept. 5.—A Constance dispatch says Government troops have occupied the principal buildings in Munich. Strong patrols have been guarding the streets since Monday, as an attempt by Communists and Spartacists to overthrow the Government is feared.

"Munich is living on the edge of a volcano, which may break into eruption at any moment," the dispatch concludes.

LLOYD GEORGE TO VISIT PARIS

French Paper Says He Will Confer With Clemenceau Next Week

Paris, Sept. 5.—The Temps is informed that the British Prime Minister will arrive in Paris next week, when he will confer with Premier Clemenceau on several questions in which both Great Britain and France are interested.

Liverpool Police.
London, Sept. 5.—The Liverpool City Council, by a vote of sixty-five to twenty-one, has resolved to allow no reinstatement of the police-men who participated in the recent strike. Sir Archibald Salvidge, leader of the Council, said the trouble has been exaggerated, and a good deal of it lay at the door of the labor members of the Council. The police strike had failed miserably because the sound common sense of the majority of the trades unionists had out-distanced the general hold-up.

BURNHAM, M. P., IS READY FOR TEST

Dares Opponents in West Peterboro to Bring on Bye-election

Peterboro, Ont., Sept. 5.—A petition is being circulated here among prominent Conservatives and Liberal Unionists alike, requesting J. H. Burnham, M. P., to resign his seat in the House.

A few days ago Mr. Burnham went over to the United States, stating that he could no longer follow the Unionist Party. This petition has just been started on its way. It requests the present member to take to the cross benches the cross benches of political oblivion, temporary or permanent.

His Challenge.
Ottawa, Sept. 5.—J. H. Burnham, M. P. for West Peterboro, has made a reply to a dispatch sent from his native city in which it was stated that a petition was being circulated requesting his resignation because of his having taken his seat on the cross benches of the House of Commons.

"He has wired a Peterboro paper as follows:

"Telegraphic dispatches state that a petition is circulating in Peterboro for my retirement owing to my going to the cross benches in protest against the continuance of the Unionist Party in power without going to the people first. Since I regard it as a breach of faith with those who voted for Unionism while the war there are any, to get the announced backing of the Union Government, whereupon I will immediately resign my seat and appeal to the people. Go to it now or crawl."

A BOLSHIEV REPORT.
Stockholm, Sept. 5.—Bolshevik newspapers in Petrograd assert that the Young Turk Committees of the Union and Progress have been transformed into Bolshevik branches and are carrying out propaganda on a large scale in Asia Minor.

Cost of Ministers' Trips to Europe Is Subject of Question

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The cost to Canada of Minister trips to Europe from the beginning of the war to the present time is the subject of a question to be asked in the House of Commons on Monday by Joseph Archambault, Liberal member for Chambly-Vercheres, Quebec.

He proposes to ask how many trips each Minister made, what was the total cost to Canada and what the cost of each trip.

BRITISH WATCHING COST OF LIVING

Industrial Peace or Unrest This Winter Depends On It

London, Sept. 5.—The industrial situation in Great Britain at the present moment seems far less grave than a few months ago, when there was a threat of a complete upheaval of labor. Since the settlement of the Yorkshire coal strike there has been no trouble of great magnitude, although small strikes in various industries are still frequent and the tramway workers are threatening a national walk-out if a wage advance is not granted. Generally, however, unrest throughout the country has been lessened since ministerial revelations of the nation's grave financial position, which seems to have had a moderating influence. Influential leaders have done their utmost to impress the workers with the imperative need of speeding up the industrial output, and moreover the Government has promised early legislation providing for a forty-eight-hour week and a minimum wage for all the industries.

Cost of Living.
Much will now depend on whether the coming winter brings a serious advance in the cost of living. Such an upward movement is already foreshadowed in increased prices of staple foods such as bread, meat, milk and tea, and if prices continue to rise new demands on the part of labor with a renewal of the strike movement undoubtedly will develop.

ROME PAPER SCORES ALLIES FOR ATTITUDE ON FIUME

Rome, Sept. 5.—"The conclusions attributed to the Inter-Allied Commission which inquired into the Fiume incident are so enormous," says The Giornale d'Italia, "that they seem impossible as coming from representatives of Governments with whom for five years Italy has lived in the brotherhood of arms and to whom she has given luminous proofs of friendship. These conclusions, if reports are true, are blows which would be hardly comprehensible even if the Commission, instead of being from Allied nations, had been composed of officials of the old Austrian Empire."

Late in June there were several clashes between Italian and French troops in the city of Fiume, it being alleged by the Italians that the French soldiers in the city were antagonistic to the Italians and had trampled upon Italian flags which had been wrested from Italians in the street. The Council of Five of the Peace Conference appointed a Commission to investigate the disturbances there in which French soldiers were killed and made recommendations to the Peace Conference which include maintenance of public order by a British and American police force, marines to form the American contingent.

NOTE FROM ALLIES TO ROUMANIA FIRM BUT CORDIAL, IT IS SAID

Being Carried to Bucharest By Sir George Clerk; Asks Roumania to Help Allies to Re-Establish Order in Hungary, Says Paris Paper

Paris, Sept. 5.—The note of the Supreme Council which Sir George Clerk, of the British Foreign Office, is carrying to Bucharest, is couched in firm but cordial language, according to The Petit Parisien to-day. It says the communication recalls to the Roumanian Cabinet the engagements it had entered into and sets forth the necessity of their being kept.

It is said by The Journal that Sir George is taking with him the seventy five wireless messages which the Roumanian delegation is reported to have sent from Paris to the Roumanian Government within the last two weeks but none of which reached their destination, Roumania claiming a similar failure of the various Allied notes to reach her.

As to the new Allied note, The Journal says it declares that the Peace Conference considers Roumania as a faithful friend, expresses the wish that its Government will not detach itself from the body of the Allies, requests explanations on various points, asks that Roumania evacuate Hungary speedily, meanwhile ceasing requisitioning supplies, while putting the material already requisitioned at the disposal of the Allies for the purpose of making a just division of it or its equivalent among the various nations having claims against Hungary.

The note is said to end by asking Roumania to co-operate with the Allies in re-establishing order in Hungary.

Austrians Watching.
A delayed dispatch received in Paris from Vienna, where it was filed August 29, says Austria is watching the trend of events in Hungary with growing apprehension. The future of that former part of the Dual Monarchy, it is freely said, must have a grave bearing on Austria's future, which itself is admittedly uncertain. The present ascendancy of the reactionary elements is feared in Vienna to point the way to a monarchial government either by the re-establishment of Hungary as a kingdom or the fruition of the reported Roumanian scheme of a dual Roumanian-Hungarian Empire under a Roumanian King.

Royalists Busy.
The activity of the royalist elements of Europe outside of the immediate House of Hapsburg is indicated by reports from apparently good sources that approaches recently were made to a certain high personage bearing on Austria's future, which would be acceptable as either King or Emperor of Hungary.

According to information in Vienna, the forthcoming elections in Hungary point strongly toward a monarchial success. It is said openly that the Roumanians are diligent in assisting this movement as appealing to their own ambition of union of the two countries.

QUESTION ABOUT SIBERIAN FORCE

Government Will Be Asked If Troops Forced to Embark Here

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The charge that members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force were made to embark for Siberia at the point of the bayonet will be brought before the House of Commons by Joseph Archambault, Liberal member for Chambly-Vercheres, Quebec, who has given notice that he will ask on Monday next as to the strength of the force sent to Siberia, the proportion of volunteers in that force, the cost of sending the force, and whether or not certain members of the force who had not enlisted voluntarily were court-martialed and sentenced to hard labor.

The steamship Protoslaus left Victoria with troops for Siberia on December 26.

A question similar to Mr. Archambault's, as to whether troops had been forced to embark at the point of the bayonet, was asked at the last session of Parliament. It was stated on behalf of the Government that the Militia Department had no information to that effect.

LOGGERS IN COMOX DISTRICT ON STRIKE AND CAMPS ARE IDLE

Courtenay, Sept. 5.—All logging camps in the Courtenay and Comox districts have been closed down as a result of strikes among the loggers. There is no apparent reason for the tie-up, and it is probable that one camp will be re-opened in an endeavor to ascertain exactly what stand the men will take. If any disposition to return to work is displayed by the men, other camps will be opened. Several hundred men, the majority of them foreigners, are affected.

SENATE ADVISED TO RATIFY THE TREATY

Amendment Opposed by Committee of American Bar Association

Boston, Sept. 5.—Ratification of the peace treaty without amendment was favored in a majority report submitted to-day by a special committee of the American Bar Association appointed to study the League of Nations covenant.

Forty Amendments.
Washington, Sept. 5.—The treaty of peace with Germany, ordered reported out late yesterday by the Foreign Relations Committee will include forty amendments and about forty amendments when it reaches the floor of the Senate about September 15. The reservations, adopted in the committee in the form of a resolution of conditional ratification, provide that:

1. The United States reserves the unconditional right to withdraw from the League.
2. The United States is not bound by Article 10, except on mandates except Joint resolution of Congress.
3. All internal affairs of the United States are removed from the League's consideration.
4. The Monroe Doctrine is declared entirely outside the League's jurisdiction, and the United States shall be its interpreter.

TREATY APPROVED BY THE SENATE

Senator Bostock Asked More Time, But Resolutions Were Passed

Lougheed Declared Treaty and League Covenant World's Greatest Documents

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—That Parliament approve of the Versailles treaty of peace was moved for the Government in the Senate yesterday by Sir James Lougheed. A request from the Liberals for further time to consider the treaty and the League of Nations covenant was not acceded to and the three resolutions placed on the order paper by the Government were adopted.

Senator Bostock, Leader of the Opposition, moved that consideration should be deferred until September 15 in order that Senators might have time to familiarize themselves with the terms of the treaty.

Sir James Lougheed said he considered the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations the greatest documents which had ever been written. The treaty marked the fortunate ending of a desperate struggle. Had the victory gone to Germany, freedom would have vanished, and Canada, like the rest of the world, would have been under the heel of the drill sergeant for years to come. It is true, she would have crushed the life out of the nations opposing her, but the Allies had proved themselves more generous and merciful. At the same time they had crippled German hopes of world domination.

Too Short Time.

Senator Bostock held that the time given by the Government for examination of the treaty of peace and the covenant of the League of Nations was too short to enable a thorough examination being made for intelligent discussion. He noted that Article 10 committed the Dominion to provide its share of the force required to enforce the provisions of the treaty and the decisions of the permanent Council. Many persons had the feeling that Canada might have quite enough to do in looking after her own problems and seeing to the development of her own territory and resources.

In Commons.

In the Commons yesterday afternoon in answer to Jacques Bureau, Sir Robert Borden stated that the resolution on the order paper regarding the peace treaty with Germany was not there as the basis for a money bill, but merely to give the House an opportunity of expressing approval or disapproval of the treaty. If legislation were required in connection with the treaty, it would be introduced later.

Arthur Trahan, Nicolet, asked the Prime Minister whether the Canadian delegates at the Peace Conference had protested against Article 10 of the League of Nations covenant. He did this, he said, in view of the fact that Sir Robert had stated in his speech on Tuesday that the Canadian delegates had taken exception to certain provisions of the treaty.

The Prime Minister said that he had nothing to add to his statement on the subject.

Mr. Trahan pressed his question. Finally, the speaker told him that it was not one which could be answered on the Orders of the Day. It should wait until the treaty was being discussed.

D. D. McKenzie, Acting Leader of the Opposition, dealing with the references to the peace treaty, said Canada was given a standing, internationally, such as she had never had before. She was now dealing directly with outside powers without regard to any consultation with the Mother Country.

COST OF LIVING DEBATED IN HOUSE

Borden Admits Commerce Board Should Have Started Sooner

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The cost of living cropped up in the debate on the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne in the Commons yesterday afternoon. D. D. McKenzie, Acting Leader of the Opposition, felt there was reason to complain because the Board of Commerce had not moved as rapidly or as effectively as Parliament and the people had a right to expect. July and August had passed, and September had been reached, and nothing had been done by virtue of the Act passed at the last session of Parliament. Only a few days ago the Board had been constituted by the appointment of a third member.

Mr. McKenzie thought that after the various probes and investigations of the last three and a half years the Government, "which appears somewhat impervious to information," would have been ready to seize all the facts and reduce the cost of necessities without delay. One member of the Board, however, had hindered himself to Washington, there to "truck and trade with the Yankees" and find out how they had controlled the increases in prices. Now they found the Board going back to questionnaires, and if the same number of commissions were to follow as on previous questionnaires, then the people might starve to death before they were given relief by this Government or the Commission.

Detroit Reductions.

Mr. McKenzie quoted a Detroit dispatch showing reductions in food prices across the border, and said that instead of reductions, there had been increases for the same articles in Canada. He urged the Government, if it found the price of any article continuing high in Canada and

Calgary, Sept. 5.—The following statement was issued yesterday afternoon from the office of the Director of Coal Operations with regard to the selling price of coal in the province of Alberta and South-eastern British Columbia:

"Owing to the increase in the cost of production consequent upon the adoption of the eight-hour day for surface men working at the mines in District No. 18, the following advances in the selling price of coal and coke f. o. b. mines in District 18 have been authorized:

low in the United States, to remove the duty and give the people here the advantage of competition from across the border.

The angel of political death, said Mr. McKenzie, had recently touched some members on the Government side of the House. Sir Thomas White had finally given up the Finance portfolio. Mr. McKenzie prophesied Sir Thomas White's successor, Sir Henry Drayton, would find the financial cupboard as bare as that of the fabled Mother Hubbard.

Sir Robert Borden, in replying to Mr. McKenzie, admitted that the Board of Commerce had been constituted earlier.

Sir Robert quoted a table of costs, showing the prices of certain articles in Canada and in the United States. Some of these articles, he pointed out, were cheaper in Canada.

Turning to Mr. McKenzie's reference to the visit of Commissioner O'Connor to Washington, the Prime Minister thought Mr. O'Connor had acted wisely in visiting Washington or any other city where he would get information which would be of value to him in his work.

Profiteering. There was much laughter when J. H. Sinclair, Guyboro, N. S., charged the Minister of Railways with profiteering. The Government Railways, according to Mr. Sinclair, bought codfish at 4 cents a pound, cooked it, and sold it in their dining cars at the rate of $1.80 a pound. He also made the charge that the Government was running the country into debt at the rate of $50,000 an hour; and waste at the present time was "like a sin against the Holy Ghost."

It was indeed a gorgeous day, and one we'll all remember. I mean what's known as Labor Day, the first day of September. Joe says the sale of ROCKSIDE CHICKEN simply was immense. It should be called "SAINT ROCKSIDE'S DAY," from his experience.

At all the beaches hereabout, right to Cordova Bay, 'twas "COLD ROAST CHICKEN" seemed to be the order of the day. With other dainties, ready cooked, too numerous to mention—From RYLANDS STORE these picnickers had given their attention.

Three Aeroplanes at Willows, too, were flying very low. But RYLANDS' paper bags as well made quite a goodly show. You'd find them all along the beach, where happy people sat, And on the road to Shawanigan, right o'er the Malahat.

Now, just ask any school kid "What Victoria's noted for?" And he'll reply, "Why, ROCKSIDE CHICKEN, bought at RYLANDS' STORE."

The teacher then says, "Go up top, you're right, my little boy!" For ROCKSIDE CHICKEN is Victoria's special pride and joy.

The trustees were elected as follows:

Delegate Showler, teamsters; Delegate Harris, bootmakers; Delegate McKenzie, hotel and restaurant employees, and Delegate Mowat, bookbinders.

The full quota of delegates will be sent to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, it was decided, those selected being: Delegate McVety, Miss Gutteridge and McKenzie.

In thanking the delegates for his election, President Welsh stated that he intended to see to it that the meetings of the Council were conducted in a lawful and orderly manner.

"What does my little man want to buy to-day—sweets?" asked the kindly shopkeeper, as the little boy entered.

"You bet I do," was the reply, "but I've got to buy soap!"

ROTARY HOSPITAL IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—The Vancouver Rotary Club's Institute for Chest Diseases will be officially opened on Tuesday next. At a luncheon of the Rotary Club on that day, Premier Oliver and Dr. H. E. Young, Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, will be the principal speakers. Immediately after the luncheon the members will proceed to the Institute and Premier Oliver will have the honor of declaring the building open. In the evening the annual meeting of the B. C. Anti-Tuberculosis Society will be held there, when Dr. Young again will speak, as well as Dr.

Houle, Superintendent of Tranquille Sanatorium, and Dr. Vrooman, Medical Director of the Institute.

ARRESTED MAN IN ALBERTA ESCAPED

Edmonton, Sept. 5.—When Larsen, the man arrested at Cadomin Mines, near Mountain Park, by Detective Campbell, wanted on a charge of holding up in Edmonton and suspected by the police of having shot the policeman, Nixon, who died the next day, was being brought to Edmonton last evening, he threw himself from the gasoline tanker on which he was being conveyed, and before it could be stopped, escaped to the woods.

CHARGE OF ARMY PAY LIST PADDING

Mewburn Will Ask McMillan to Provide Information For Inquiry

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—J. A. M. Armstrong, Unionist, North York, Ontario, asked the Minister of Militia in the Commons yesterday afternoon if he had any further statement to make with regard to the charge made that the overseas pay lists of soldiers had been padded with 30,000 names at a cost of $30,000,000 to the country. Did the Government intend to take action?

Major-General Mewburn said he had no personal knowledge of the matter but he proposed to call upon Mr. McMillan, who had made the statement, to give information where by an investigation could take place. If Mr. McMillan was not prepared to substantiate his statement, the matter would have to be dealt with in the proper way.

Sir Robert Borden added that he had conferred with Major-General Ross, the Paymaster-General, and asked him for information on the subject. General Ross had replied that there was no foundation for Mr. McMillan's statement.

Sir Sam Hughes remarked that having felt the statement to be reflection on his own term as Minister of Militia, he too had conferred with General Ross. Although satisfied there was no foundation for the statement, Sir Sam said he would like an investigation to be made.

Thanksgiving Day. Ottawa, Sept. 5.—In the Commons yesterday afternoon Mr. Pedlow presented a bill to make Armistice Day, November 11, permanent Thanksgiving Day throughout Canada. The bill was read a first time.

BRITISH TROOPS WILL LEAVE NORTH RUSSIA

London, Sept. 5.—It is authoritatively stated that the decision to withdraw the British troops from North Russia has not been altered. The recent offensive operations against the Bolsheviks were undertaken solely to weaken the enemy and ameliorate the situation to the greatest possible extent for the Russian volunteers after the departure of the British.

CALGARY NEEDS NEW CHIEF OF POLICE

NEW SCHOOL PLAN AT WORK IN DUNCAN

Consolidation in Cowichan Now Is an Accomplished Fact

Duncan, Sept. 5.—Cowichan now has school consolidation. This is the first week of the new scheme, which is being rounded into form. The beginning was made at the reopening of school on Tuesday, when four van loads of children were brought from the outlying school districts and deposited at the Duncan school on time. All arrangements had been satisfactorily made and Principal Stacey began at once with the work of grading the new pupils, at which task he has been engaged since.

High School. At the Duncan High School commencement exercises W. M. Dwyer, chairman of the Consolidated School Board, presided and Trustees C. T. Smith and G. Tisdall were present. Col. Eardley-Wilmot and G. A. Cheeke, of the Cowichan Navy League, and about fifteen other visitors were present.

In his report on the past year's work Principal A. B. Thorpe, M.A., spoke of the interruptions caused by the influenza epidemic and the loss of the school movement and their effect on the school work. In 1918, before the incorporation of the city of Duncan, the High School had served the united population, and now that the units were bringing in the children from the consolidated areas, the school represented again a united district and it was an inspiring sight.

On his ninth commencement year Mr. Thorpe thought it fitting to outline the changes that had taken part in the educational system. The freedom to move pupils from one class to another as they were ready, with one or two public outside exams to check one's standard, was a step in advance. The course of study had changed. Technical grammar had been eliminated from the High School course. Canadian history and civics had been added. French was now taught conversationally and along modern lines. The greatest change had been in the teaching of science, which was now so up to the minute that it dealt with poison tubes and gas masks.

Mr. Thorpe made an appeal for proper laboratory facilities to carry on this work. The second greatest need of the school was a modern library.

Good Work Done. Mr. Dwyer thanked the principal for his comprehensive report, and complimented the principal and school on the work accomplished. Mr. Munro as assistant to Mr. Thorpe, and as a returned soldier was welcomed to the district.

G. A. Cheeke spoke briefly on the work of the Navy League, and hoped to come again.

Col. Eardley-Wilmot presented the prizes, which went to the following: Major Hayward's prize for courtesy and good conduct, given on the vote of the school to a student with an unblemished conduct record for the year, was won by Frank Flett.

Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman's prize to the best girl for courtesy went to Olive Van Norman.

Matriculation prize — Morgan Jones.

Advanced course — Gabrielle Collard.

Preliminary course — Gwendolyn Owens.

The Navy League's prize for best essay on the flag was won by three essays of equal merit — Gladys Lomas, Hazel Castley and Evelyn Jones.

About fifty students were present.

From England.

G. G. Baisley has returned from England for a short time, but will go back soon to a job in England.

Mr. Chater is a soldier who also returned this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Aldersey, of Duncan, are expected back from England within a fortnight.

Mrs. and the Misses Pittson are visiting Mr. E. Paitson, of Quamichan Lake.

Miss Ashby, from England, is visiting her brothers at Maple Bay.

Mrs. Davies, recently from England with her children, is in Mr. F. G. Aldersey's house for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Davis, of Victoria, are taking up their residence in Duncan.

Conference.

At the Women's Institute conference for Vancouver Island to be held at the Empress Hotel in Victoria towards the end of October, Miss Murphey (Janey Cannuck) will be the chief speaker. Mrs. Watt, whose institute experiences in England will be full of interest also has been asked to speak.

GERMANS MAKE USE OF BIG ZEPPELIN

London, Sept. 5.—A Reuter dispatch from Warsaw reports that a large German airship, which is fitted with a wireless outfit, is making regular trips between Breslau and several towns in Russian Bolshevik territory.

The dispatch asserts that the aircraft carries thirty passengers and is being used chiefly to transport Bolshevik agitators. The airship frequently was observed flying over Lemberg, Galicia.

SMUTS PRIME MINISTER OF SOUTH AFRICA NOW

Cape Town, Sept. 5.—There has been no material change in the Cabinet portfolios as a result of the change in the Premiership, excepting that General Smuts, successor to General Botha, also has taken the portfolio of Native Affairs in addition to that of Defence.

Information Asked. Regina, Sept. 5.—The Regina Board of Trade last night discussed the coming education conference in Winnipeg and some doubts arose as to what is back of the movement, what is to be done with the $50,000 being raised and who is actually promoting it and with what purpose. Information on these points will be sought by the council of the Board.

AFRAID HE'D HAVE TO GIVE UP JOB

Hagel's Health Was Badly Run-down; Restored by Tanlac

"There may be other medicines as good as Tanlac for troubles like I had, but I have never been able to find them, and I have been trying for a long time to get relief," said Hagel, a well-known employee of the Winnipeg Street Car Company, living at 25 Thelmo Mansion, 519 Burnell Street, Winnipeg, recently.

"Several years ago," he continued, "my stomach commenced to give me trouble, but I paid little attention to it until the first of July, 1918, when I was in such misery that I thought sure I would be compelled to stop work. I kept rattling up with one thing and another, however, and managed to keep going, but finally my stomach got in such a bad fix that everything I ate gave me trouble. My food did not seem to digest at all, but would lie in my stomach like lead and ferment, causing gas, pain and shortness of breath. Then during the winter I had a bad attack of that put me on the flat of my back in bed for five weeks and left me in a much worse condition than ever. I could hardly get around at all, and my stomach was so weak and upset that I could not retain anything I ate. For two months I had to live on a diet of oranges and buttermilk and was so weak that I was absolutely unfit for anything. Finally, I don't believe I could have lifted a chair from the floor, and my back felt like it would break in two, if hurt so bad. Both my sides hurt me and the rheumatism, which had been troubling me in my ankles for two years, got worse. My ankles would swell until I could hardly get my shoes on and, in cloudy, damp weather, especially, the pain was awful."

"I was under treatment and took all kinds of medicines, but nothing did me any good, and it just looked like my health was gone entirely. Finally I got Tanlac, and it certainly was lucky for me that I did. I have taken four bottles now and am simply feeling like a different person, but I'm not going to stop at that, for I expect to take at least four more bottles to make sure my troubles are gone and gone for good. My appetite is just fine now and my stomach has improved until I can eat anything I want without suffering a particle from gas, sourness, or any other signs of indigestion. Every bit of the pain has left my sides and back, the rheumatism has disappeared from my ankles, and I am rapidly getting back my lost strength. I am just so thankful for what Tanlac has done for me that I want to tell everybody about it, for I believe there are lots of other people who need it just like I did."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas Avenues.

5,000 MORE SOLDIERS BACK TO CANADA

London, Sept. 5.—The Canadian military establishment in England is daily becoming skeletonized. This week's sailings will total 5,000 men. The Minnedosa left on Tuesday, carrying 35 officers and 275 other ranks. The Adriatic sailed Thursday and took a large number of officers with their families.

The steamship Canada sailed yesterday for Quebec, carrying family parties numbering in all about 627, and the Cedric left for Halifax with 437 family parties, including 94 officers.

The Cretic departed to-day for New York, carrying 125 officers and their families, and the Minnetonka will take more than 2,000 men, this being about the last sailing of single soldiers.

The Saturnia sailed to-day with 44 officers and 166 married couples, and the Orduna will sail on Saturday with 192 officers and 387 families.

All the remaining officers are now congregated in Argyll House, every other building which they have occupied during the war having been relinquished.

DENIKINE'S TROOPS TO JOIN GEN. PETLURA'S

London, Sept. 5.—The War Office considers that the occupation of Kiev by General Denikine insures a junction between the forces of General Denikine and General Petlura, the Ukrainian leader.

The Bolshevik thrust towards Kharkov is believed now definitely to have been countered, and Denikine's left centre again appears to be secure.

Stockholm, Sept. 4.—via London, Sept. 5.—Ch. Davis, a dysenteric, reported to have broken out in Petrograd. There is a lack of medicines and famine is threatened.

MR. KING TO SEEK ELECTION IN P. E. I.

Two Great Inventions Exclusive to

The Brunswick ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

MADE IN CANADA

It Had to Come!

The Brunswick just had to be. In every industry the law of evolution applies, and sooner or later perfection is attained.

Just as we have seen the automobile perfected in the last fifteen years, so those in the phonograph industry confidently watched for the "Final Phonograph."

And it has come. The "Final Phonograph" is the Brunswick—the instrument which plays all records CORRECTLY. The Brunswick unlocks for you the whole world of recorded music.

In addition to having all the good features of very other good phonograph, the Brunswick alone has these two supreme inventions:

1. The "Ultona"—an improved tone arm and reproducer, which provides, by a mere twist of the wrist, the exact WEIGHT, the proper DIAPHRAGM and correct NEEDLE for every make of record.

2. The all-wood oval tone amplifier—built like a violin. This tone-chamber, oval-moulded from choice woods, and absolutely free from any kind of metal, eliminates all harsh metallic notes.

The Brunswick plays better, looks better, costs no more and gives you unlimited choice of records.

TREATY AT WASHINGTON.

The Senate of the United States will receive the Treaty of Versailles from its Foreign Relations Committee with a recommendation of four reservations and forty amendments. The reservations provide that the United States reserves the unconditional right to withdraw from the League of Nations; it accepts no mandates except by joint resolution of Congress; all internal affairs of the United States are removed from the League's consideration; the Monroe Doctrine is declared entirely outside the League's jurisdiction and the United States shall be its interpreter.

Two of these reservations are meaningless in their relation to the treaty. There is absolutely nothing in the covenant signed at Versailles which places the internal affairs of the republic under the consideration of the League of Nations, while the treaty expressly excepts the Monroe Doctrine from any of its provisions, by virtue of an amendment, known as Article 21, which was drafted in Washington, cable to Versailles and accepted by the Conference. The inclusion of these two reservations is simply an attempt by the opponents of the Washington Administration to make political capital by setting up a straw man and knocking it down.

The reservation of the unconditional right to withdraw from the League of Nations falls foul of the first article of the treaty which is as follows: "Any member of the League may, after two years' notice of its intention so to do, withdraw from the League, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under of its withdrawal." The Senate Committee insists, however, that the United States may withdraw on its own terms and at its own time. It also refuses to agree to the binding obligations of other conditions of this article.

Accompanying these reservations are forty amendments. Thus, the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate is doing its best to kill the treaty as far as the United States is concerned. We may take it for granted, of course, that it does not believe that anything it or the Senate might do in the way of emasculating the convention can affect it in respect of the other powers. The treaty has been ratified by the British Parliament. It will be ratified by France, Italy and Japan, and will stand as far as those powers are concerned.

If the report of the Foreign Relations Committee were accepted by the Senate and the treaty, as amended, were signed by the President, the United States would have to negotiate a separate covenant with Germany, for certainly the place the republic in an unenviable position. It would be isolated from its allies, and the isolation would have nothing "splendid" about it. It would substitute the substantial advantages presented by the Treaty of Versailles with the very dubious conditions it would be able to obtain from Germany. In such a case Germany would negotiate from a very favorable vantage ground. She would expect to be met by the United States on equal terms, as if there had been no war, and she would not have to negotiate on any other terms.

Finally, the repudiation of the treaty would be a supreme humiliation of the chief executive of the republic in the eyes of the world and, in consequence, of the republic itself. The country which initiated the League of Nations, the principles set forth by whose government were accepted as the basis of peace, would be in the position of having repudiated its own proposals—and all because of an attempt to make political capital against the Wilson Administration and wreck its chances in the next election.

We doubt if the Republican members of the Senate will go that far, for the weapon would be a political boomerang. The American people are not likely to become a pawn in such a game, and before President Wilson has completed his tour it is altogether probable that there will be such abundant evidence of the fact that the Lodge-Knox-Borah contingent will discover the futility and the foolishness of prostituting an issue which so vitally concerns the peace of the world to political purposes.

"EASILY FILLED?"

In accepting the resignations of the Assessor and Plumbing Inspector on Tuesday night several aldermen lightly observed that it would be very easy to fill their places. They were annoyed by certain statements in the letters of resignation and the announcement in The Times of that afternoon that the communications had been submitted, and allowed their annoyance to run away with their judgment.

The Council proposes to pay the successors of these officials when appointed the same salaries received by them up to the time of their resignations. If this means anything at all it is that the years of experience and knowledge of their work of the former Assessor and Plumbing Inspector count for nothing in the all-seeing aldermanic eye, leaving aside altogether the faithful performance of duty and the question of efficiency—a very important consideration, for it is no easy thing to interpret the policies evolved year in and year out by different Councils.

The aldermen are quite mistaken. If the men who succeed those two officials are able to do the work as well as it has been done without having had their experience and intimate knowledge of it, then, obviously, the new appointees will be entitled to more remuneration than hitherto has been attached to the offices. If they are not, then they are not entitled to receive as much.

Far be it from us to underrate the genius of any of our aldermen, but we suggest that even Alderman Fullerton, himself, without any experience in the work, could not perform the important duties of Assessor, for example, as well as the official who has filled that post for some years. Incidentally, may we inquire if the same negligible value is placed by these aldermen—who fill responsible positions so lightly—on the experience and knowledge of all the civic officials? They do not reckon such qualifications so poorly when they offer themselves for re-election, for do they not refer the electors to their own glowing records in their annual appeal for votes?

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY.

Although the Province, as an active agency, is more or less handicapped by its statutory limitations in respect of purely Dominion affairs, the procedure Mr. Farris proposes to follow in British Columbia's part of the nation-wide campaign against the high cost of living should result in the assembly of a vast amount of valuable information.

It may be that the Federal authorities themselves, through the Board of Commerce, will yet see the necessity of instituting a more direct plan of action than that which so far has been decided upon. At any rate, by invoking the co-operation of the municipalities throughout British Columbia the Attorney-General will be able to tap many more sources of information with much better effect.

As he points out, the greater proportion of the police officers in the Province are under the control of Municipal Police Commissioners, Provincial officers being very much in the minority. On this account alone to designate such important duties to a comparatively small body of men—whose work very largely lies in the rural districts—cannot result in an effective campaign, apart from the fact that police duties have nothing to do with investigation into the machinations of a twentieth century combine.

It is to be hoped, therefore, that the Mayors of all the principal points in British Columbia will be able to meet the Attorney-General in conference at Vancouver on Monday next. Much will depend upon a harmonious co-operation between the Government and the Municipalities. If there are no offenders against the people's ladder it will be well to know it. On the other hand, if the police "activity" which Chief Commissioner Robson requires, uncovers the opposite condition, no amount of energy displayed by the Attorney-General and his associates will be too much.

LET HIM FEEL AT HOME.

If the Prince of Wales displays as much interest in the collection of newspaper clippings as the average present-day politician he should be well on the way to possessing a volume that would outdo the brightest half-yearly edition of Punch. An imaginative writer in Toronto, for instance, discovered him to be a "lovably human" person demonstrating, with a natural spontaneity, the characteristics of his race. By the time he reaches Victoria this amiable Prince may have considerably difficulty in deciding which of all the many and varied descriptions comes nearest to the sensible individual he has shown himself to be.

Since he reached the Dominion he has learned a great deal about Canada and the Canadians. No library in existence could have furnished him with half the education he has undoubtedly assimilated by personal contact with the people. If "lovably human" is a correct expression to use about him, he has been that. And it would not surprise us a bit if he were to "cut loose" from convention before he reaches the Pacific Coast and stage, say, a ball game on his own. It might be disastrous if he did. There would be chaos among all the celebration committees because every baseball fan in the country would label him instantly as "one of 'em" and proceed to do full honors in the fashion known only to devotees of the diamond.

Victoria, however, will be in the fortunate position of knowing the wishes of His Royal Highness. For that reason it is to be hoped that local arrangements, outside of recognized conventional demands, will share his interpretation of democracy and allow him to enjoy Victoria's distinctive atmosphere without an overdose of social exactions.

AIRSHIPS VERBOTEN!

It was reported some little time ago that Germany had constructed a new type of Zeppelin since the signing of the armistice, and that it would be placed in commission for a daily passenger service at once. A Reuter dispatch from Warsaw now intimates that a German airship is making regular trips between Breslau and Russian Bolshevik territory. If this is the case one of the clauses of the Peace Treaty has been broken. Germany is not permitted, under its terms, to own a dirigible capable of taking the air and for that reason there should be no delay on the part of the Allied and Associated Governments in demanding the surrender of the craft now alleged to be engaged in transporting Bolshevik agitators.

CUSTOMS TAX ON PRODUCTION.

(Dr. Michael Clark, M.P., in House of Commons, July 3, 1919.)
What excuse is there for keeping a duty on agricultural implements while agricultural implements are free in the United States and at the same time telling our farmers: You have got to produce. Look at the United States. I have been told: Yes, look and imitate them if you want to do something that is really going to reach the heart of this question. What is the effect of making it 35 per cent. more difficult for the workers in our cities and the workers on our farms to keep their feet, and the feet of their wives and children, properly covered? The effect, inevitably, is to drive our inhabitants from Canada across the imaginary line which separates Canada from the United States. This is a serious matter, Mr. Speaker, this is a matter which concerns every one of us, and I venture to speak strongly upon it because I feel strongly.

DIRECT ACTION WILL BE REJECTED

Postponement of Vote.
At yesterday's conference of the triple alliance of railwaymen, transport workers and miners, a majority of the railwaymen supported the proposal to postpone a vote on the question of direct action. The foremost labor leaders of the country, including Robert Smillie, leader of the miners; James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen; John R. Clynes, Rt. Hon. John Hodge, former Minister of Pensions; William James Thorne and Ben Tillet, were present at the meeting and the decision to postpone the ballot, which was reported by a considerable majority, is considered a serious blow to the escape from an awkward situation.

Wise Decision.
Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor Party in the House of Commons, speaking in London last night, characterized it as a "wise and commendable decision." He admitted the workers must retain the right to strike for industrial purposes until society is better organized, but he said the night not "set a bad example by substituting direct action for the constitutional measures which are provided."

Mr. Henderson said they had to consider the possibility of organized labor being called to form a government, and ask themselves whether in that case they would allow a minority in opposition to labor's program for social and economic betterment to defeat that policy by unconstitutional means.

Shantung section: provides withdrawal of the United States from representation on the numerous international commissions; limit the authority of the American representatives on the Reparations Commission; provide for equal voting power in the League Council and Assembly of the United States and Great Britain, and prohibit British colonies voting in league deliberations on questions at issue between Great Britain and the United States.

Stormy Debate.
The action of the Committee in ordering the treaty reported out yesterday came sooner than expected, and followed a stormy debate in which the membership of both the Republicans and Democrats was divided. The reservations were offered by Chairman Lodge and were re-considered and rejected by a vote of 167 to 133. The Democratic members of the Committee, with the exception of Senator Borah, voted in favor of the treaty. The Republican members of the Committee, with the exception of Senator Borah, voted in favor of the treaty.

NOTE FROM ALLIES TO ROUMANIA FIRM BUT CORDIAL, IT IS SAID

Seventy-five Messages.
Paris, Sept. 5.—The Minister of War at Paris received a wireless message, according to the intramural press, which said that the Roumanian delegation had sent to the Allies seventy-five messages from Paris during the last two weeks but that none had arrived at its destination.

The Roumanian Government's failure to receive at Bucharest the messages of the Supreme Council caused much discussion among the members of the Council, who could not at first take seriously the Roumanian Government's statement that it had not received the Council's notes.

Called "Dangerous."
Paris, Sept. 5.—J. C. Bratiano, the Roumanian Premier, has advised Nicholas Misu, the Roumanian representative here, of the receipt of the latter's dispatch advising him that the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference had prohibited shipment of arms and war munitions from Hungary to Roumania. The telegram declares that notes sent to Bucharest by the Supreme Council have not been received, and asks M. Misu especially to call the attention of the Supreme Council to the "dangerous and pernicious character of the policy it has adopted toward Roumania."

Service to Allies.
"The Roumanian Government is absolutely convinced," the telegram continues, "that in destroying Bolshevikism in Hungary it has rendered eminent service to the Allied cause. As a consequence of the conditions imposed upon Roumania without taking account of the sacrifices of men and materials, the Roumanian Government may be obliged to consider the advantages of withdrawing her troops across the Dvina, in Southern Russia, and placing all responsibility for the chaos to which that part of Europe may be reduced by the Bolsheviks, Royalists and reactionaries."

new states created out of the former Austro-Hungarian Empire and defining the rights of minorities.

The Bulgarian peace treaty has been virtually completed. Apparently the problem concerning Thrace will be left unsolved except that a commission will be named to study means for granting Bulgaria access to the Aegean Sea. The American delegation favors return of Dobruja to Bulgaria, but in this it is virtually unsupported.

Cabinet May Fall.
Geneva, Sept. 4, via London, Sept. 5.—The Austrian peace terms have been received in Vienna with great surprise and indignation, according to advisers received here. It is believed that the Renner Ministry will fall as a result. The monarchistic circles consider the terms have definitely killed any hope of the return of the Hapsburgs.

GERMANS ENDEAVOR TO JUSTIFY THEIR SINKING OF WARSHIPS

Versailles, Sept. 5.—Baron Kurt von Lerner, the German Government representative, sent to the French Foreign Office yesterday afternoon a note in which an attempt was made to justify the action of Germans in scuttling their warships at Scapa Flow last June.

DIVORCED TWICE FROM THE SAME WOMAN

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—His second divorce from the same woman has been granted to Sergeant A. J. Dean, formerly of the 72nd Battalion, by Mr. Justice Gregory in the Supreme Court here. Sergeant Dean was originally married in 1907 at Seattle to Maud Jessie Wilcox, whom he divorced in 1916 in the same city after two children had been born.

As Dean was an Englishman by birth he felt the call to arms, and sold out his Seattle business after the divorce in order to enlist. He joined the 72nd Battalion, but his former wife followed him here and, as he described it in the witness box, he gave her a second chance. They were remarried by Rev. W. E. Dunham, of the Sixth Avenue Methodist Church, on September 23, 1917.

When he returned from overseas in March, 1919, he found that his wife had left him, and was living in Seattle with another man. He followed her there, and she said she was perfectly satisfied, and did not wish to live with her husband again. He instituted the proceedings just concluded.

VANCOUVER WORKERS WANT WEEK OF ONLY THIRTY-SIX HOURS

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—A six-hour day, with a thirty-six-hour week, recognition of labor unions and collective bargaining, the right of employees to organize and the establishing by various provinces, and not by the Dominion, of a minimum wage, will be urged by the delegates representing the trades and Labor Council of Vancouver, the body recently organized by the international unions here, when these delegates attend the nation-wide conference of employers and employees in Ottawa this month.

The delegates also have been instructed to urge the adoption of the principles embodied in the labor charter in the peace treaty, with the exception that instead of the eight-hour day and the forty-eight or forty-four-hour week, a six-hour day and a thirty-six-hour week be adopted.

POLICE ARREST THREE IN DRUG TRAFFIC IN CHINATOWN

The police made a drive against the drug traffic in Chinatown with the result that three Chinese were brought up in Police Court to-day by Sergeant Blackstock and Constable Jones.

Wing and Low Chong Lit, two young men, dressed in the latest Canadian style, were charged with having cocaine in their possession. Low, a gray-haired man with a limp, and garbed in Chinese fashion with long loose sleeves, was charged with being caught selling cocaine.

When the charge was read in the Court and translated to them through the interpreter, Magistrate Jay asked them, through the interpreter, whether they were guilty or not.

"We have got a lawyer," was their reply in translation. They pointed to R. C. Brethour, who was in Court. "You think you need a lawyer to tell you whether you are guilty or not," commented Magistrate Jay. Mr. Brethour asked that the case be put off until Tuesday, and this request was granted.

The three Chinese were allowed out on $250 bail each.

PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF BANK ON VISIT TO CITY

Merchants' Bank Officials Arrived This Afternoon

Sir Hugh Montagu Allan, president of the Merchants Bank, accompanied by D. C. Macarow, general manager; K. W. B. Blackwell, vice-president; A. J. Dawes, Geo. L. Cairns, F. Howard Wilson and Farquhar Robertson, directors, arrived in the city this afternoon from Vancouver. They held conferences with their managers in Winnipeg and Edmonton. E. W. McMullen, local manager, went to the Edmonton meeting and returned with the party. An interview has already appeared with Sir Montagu Allan on current financial affairs. He looks for forthcoming Dominion loan to be a success, and pointed to its necessity to readjustment.

Prairie Crop Prospects

Mr. Macarow, in a Vancouver interview, said that the party had a splendid trip across the prairie, where crop conditions had substantially improved due to the belated rains. There was every evidence, he said, that there would be a good fair crop. In the southern districts where at one time the yield was regarded as hopeless, it was now improved to the extent that the all-important feed crop was now assured.

The bank, he continued, had every assurance of the future of the coast province, as was evidenced by the fact that the handsome premises at the corner of Granville and Pender Streets had been erected, and at a time when conditions did not appear bright. Generally speaking, he said, the people of the coast had confidence in the potentialities of this great province and were prepared to extend the fullest measure of support towards their development. British Columbia, he said, was unquestionably rich in resources.

Confident of Future

The general manager has not been on the coast during the past six years. The present trip was being made in order that the directors might learn by personal contact the needs of the west and be in a more favorable position to pass on matters of policy. The conferences at Winnipeg and Edmonton, enabling as it discuss their difficulties would be the did the branch managers to meet and means in a large measure of solving many banking problems in the future.

Sir Montagu Allan

Lieut.-Col. Sir Hugh Montagu Allan was born in Montreal in 1860, and early in life became well known as a business man and financier. He is president of the Merchants Bank of Canada, president of the Acadia Coal Co., Ltd.; Vice-President Canadian Vickers, Ltd.; Vice-President Canada Paper Co., Ltd.; Director of the Ritz Carlton Hotel Co., of Montreal, Ltd.; Director Dominion Steel Corporation, Ltd.; Director Labrador Co., Ltd.; Director Montreal Investment Trust; Director Civic Investment and Industrial Co.; Director Mutual Life Assurance Co., of Canada; Director Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Ltd.; Vice-President of the Royal Trust Co.; Director Canadian Cottons, Ltd.; Director Canadian Transfer Co., Ltd.; Director International Horse Shows, Ltd., London, England, and Director Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd. He is a well-known sportsman and philanthropist.

Mr. Macarow, the general manager of the Merchants Bank, was born in 1868, and has been associated with the Merchants Bank since 1884, rising from one position to another. He received his present appointment in June, 1916.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pollard, 1188 Pembroke Street, at eight o'clock last night, the Rev. J. Gibson Inkster solemnized the marriage of Miss Elva Pollard and Theodore Thomas Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hill, of Victoria. A large number of friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony and partook of the delicious wedding supper. Later Mr. and Mrs. Hill left on the midnight boat for Vancouver and the Sound cities, where the honeymoon will be spent. They will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Carmichael, of Nanaimo, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Clark, to Athol J. Cleary, formerly of Victoria, now of Shawbridge, Quebec. Miss Carmichael was until leaving for the East employed at David Spencer's, Ltd., and was one of Nanaimo's most popular young ladies. The marriage was solemnized at Shawbridge, Que. The bride was becomingly attired in a cream serge suit relieved with white fox furs and wore a large picture hat of white georgette. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a short honeymoon trip, the bride looking very smart in a taupe traveling dress and coat with a hat to match of taupe and sapphire blue. Mr. and Mrs. Cleary were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts.

The marriage of Miss Leah Bertha, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John North, of 631 Prior Street, Vancouver, and Mr. George Albert Dowling, second son of Mrs. Nellie Dowling, of 1225 Fifth Avenue West, was solemnized Monday evening at First Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, by Rev. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily kitted in white crepe de chine and nixon and wore a large veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower-bouquet of white carnations and sunburst roses. Miss Alice Tudor, her bridesmaid, wore Nile green crepe de chine and white nixon with white chiffon hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations and sunburst roses. The groom was supported by his brother Charles Dowling and Mrs. Ida Metcalfe played the wedding march. Charles North, brother of the bride, acted as usher. After the signing of the register the bridal party and guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet supper was served. The happy couple were the recipients of many presents. Mr. and Mrs. Dowling left later for Victoria, where they will make their home.

But, just as he thought he had the duck, it dived down under water, just like a fish, and the fox was surprised, that his nose went under water and he snuffed some of it and swallowed some and he choked and coughed and spluttered until he was all kerfuffle.

Now I have you!" suddenly cried the fox, as he made a grab. "I'll have you as well as rabbit soup for dinner!"

But the little duck dived down beneath the waves and swam under water, coming up close to shore where Uncle Wiggily was standing.

"Run along to Jimmie's house," Mr. Longears, said the little duck. "The fox is so full of water he can't chase you. I'll meet you there."

"But who are you?" asked the bunny.

"I'm the Dippy Duck," was the answer. "They call me that because I dip down and dive under water whenever I see danger, and I saw some just now when the fox was after me." Then the Dippy Duck went under water again and swam beneath the waves to Jimmie's house. And Uncle Wiggily hopped there, also, and had a good time with the Dippy Duck and the others.

As for the fox he was so full of water he could hardly swim back to shore, and he didn't get any rabbit soup that day, nor the Dippy Duck, either. But if the strawberry lemonade doesn't catch him, when it takes the bunny rabbit was ready to go see Dippy, the friend of Jimmie Wiggily.

Uncle Wiggily was hopping through the woods, wondering what sort of a chap Dippy was, when, just as the bunny rabbit gentleman came to a little lake in the middle of the woods, he heard a rustling in the bushes and out popped the bad old fox.

"Oh, ho! Oh, ho!" barked the fox. "You can't get away from me, Mr. Longears, by whining me from the head with a gun-saw test-taster, have caught you!" and he grabbed the bunny by the ears.

"Yes, I guess you have caught me," said Uncle Wiggily, sadly enough. "But please let me go!"

"Where are you going?" asked the

He walked timidly into the shop and bashfully inquired of the shop-walker: "Have you anything suitable for a present for a young lady?"

"Certainly," was the reply: "perhaps you would like to look at some of those silk jumpers?"

The young man nodded, but when the assistant inquired as to the size, he was hopelessly baffled. He gazed about him helplessly for a minute or so, then, suddenly spotting a Tommy figure, a smile stole over his face. Walking up to it he encircled it with his arm.

"Yes," about this size will do I think," he said, happily.

"Cut glass should be washed in very hot water. No soap is required. If at all blurred the glass should be cleaned with a soft brush dipped in whitening and polished with a soft piece of old newspaper."

RABBIT BREEDERS CHANGE POLICY ON ACCOUNT OF SPACE

A special meeting of the Victoria and District Rabbit Breeders' Association was called on Tuesday evening last by Mrs. Cheetham, the president, at her home in Hollywood Crescent, to decide upon the final arrangements for the coming display of rabbits at the Home Products Fair. The meeting found that the available space could not possibly meet the requirements for a regular rabbit show as was at first intended, and that the large number of entries could not possibly be staged on that account. It was, therefore, decided to give a display or exhibition of the members' finest stock in the various breeds without any competition and to allow the general public to judge for themselves upon the high quality of the animals owned by the members of the Association. It is hoped that such an exhibition will clearly demonstrate the value of only keeping and breeding the best—a rule which applies to all classes of stock. The fine, palatable food can be produced at a minimum cost. Many of the members have rabbits weighing nine pounds at two and a half months old and a few can even beat this with very little trouble in connection with every home and in a perfect sanitary condition. Members in attendance during the week of the Home Products Fair will only be too glad to explain the details of such hutch to any who are interested in the production of this meat supply. No doubt there are many people in Victoria and district who intend to enter for this exhibition, but who, up to the present, have not sent in their names to the already large list of applications for space, and who will be disappointed that the show previously announced cannot be held for lack of space in connection with the Home Products Fair. To such the Victoria Rabbit Breeders' Association wish to announce that they hope to hold such a show for competitive prizes sometime during the winter. The coming display which limits members of the Association to only three entries apiece will be educational in character and will also afford breeders and others an opportunity of seeing how they can improve their stock and where they can go to secure some of the best on the Pacific Coast. Should there be any breeders who have particularly fine specimens they would like to have included in this coming display of the best in rabbits, by joining the Association at once space can be arranged, as the present members have agreed to curtail their own exhibits in order to allow any new members to exhibit their stock. Application for membership should be sent at once to the secretary, E. Morrison, 2740 Avebury Avenue, Victoria, with 50 cents membership fee and a post card to W. Miller Higgs, Warden Ranch, Sooke Way, will bring an entry form by return mail. All applications for space must be arranged before September 11.

FLEETS BENEATH THE SEAS.

Few people know that the British have a sunken fleet nearly half as large again as the German fleet that lies beneath the waves at Scapa Flow. In 1913 an English merchant fleet, of 400 sail was being conveyed to the Mediterranean by twenty-three English and Dutch men-of-war, when they were attacked by seventy-one French ships. No less than ninety of our vessels went down, but Admiral Rooke by brilliant manoeuvring brought the others away in safety. How many people, too, know that English when we were not even at war? During the Greek War of Independence an Anglo-French fleet under Admiral Codrington was sent to Navarino to prevent the Turkish and Greek fleets from resuming hostilities. By some misunderstanding the moving of a fire-ship led to the Turks opening fire on the Greeks, and as they would not desert, Codrington joined in the fray and sank sixty of the Turkish vessels. This is what the Duke of Wellington spoke of as "an untoward incident which he trusted would not disturb the amicable relations" between us and the Turks. But it did. The Turks, in fact, declared war; though, of course, they did not stand a chance with their fleet already at the bottom. But will all history, past and future, be able to show another fleet costing $30,000,000, boasted of by 50,000,000 people, lying idle during five years of war, and finally sunk in an afternoon?—Tit-Bits.

Whatever you do, eat Krumbles
W. R. Kellogg

A cashier has to be quick-witted and wide-awake. And she can't be unless her body is rightly nourished. You may be a cashier or have any other indoor job, but "Whatever you do, eat Krumbles."

Here's why:
Krumbles is made of all the wheat grain—bran, kernel and all. It gives you every bit of the good nourishment nature puts in wheat. We cook it, shred it and toast it, so that it is ready to eat just as it comes to you in our "Waxite" package, which retains the delicate aroma and rich, tempting flavor Krumbles has when it comes crisp and hot from our ovens.

Ask your grocer for Kellogg's Krumbles—the only Krumbles made.

The H. C. Manganese Co., Ltd., is making good progress in the development of the properties at Hill 60, some twelve miles west of Duncan, says the Cowichan Leader. Two carloads, containing fifty tons in each car, have already been shipped, and it is expected that a carload will go forward every three or four days in the near future. The ore was brought down the new road by teams in the first instance, but now by truck.

The Mine Rescue Team of Black Diamond, Washington, under Captain Evans won the British Columbia Department of Mines Shield at the Labor Day life saving competition at Nanaimo. There were nine teams in the competition. The teams put the life saving apparatus together and remained for four minutes in the smoke house with burning sulphur fumes. The Roslyn Company team, also from Washington, won second in the contest. The Fernie and Western Fuel Co. teams, the latter under Captain Parkinson, made good showings.

In the first aid competition the teams from the Western Fuel Company had nearly everything their own way. The Mines Department Cup was won by Captain J. W. Jenkins' team, with Captain George Carson's team second.

The Ladysmith boys' team under George Ferguson won the Juvenile Trophy Cup and silver shield medals while Nanaimo boys under Richard Jackson won consolation matches.

Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, presented the prizes and urged the British Columbia rescue teams to prepare to bring back the B. C. shield to its native land next year. The judges were: Dr. Brydon-Jack, Dr. Nickson, Dr. Carson, Dr. Hawk.

Killed Another Panther.
"Dad" Jones, the well-known Victoria enemy of panthers, killed another panther on the Cowichan River last week. The animal was bagged about two miles and a half from the house on the river recently bought by James Dunsmead as a hunting and fishing lodge. This is the second panther Mr. Jones has killed in the neighborhood.

Spoke at Nanaimo.
An address was given by F. R. Jones, F.R.G.S., of the Overseas Club, on Tuesday evening in the Foresters' Hall to a most interested representative gathering. Mr. Jones outlined the purpose of the Overseas Club as the strengthening of the bond of comradeship among British people the world over, to encourage emigration from the Old Land with a welcome for the British newcomer.

BUDGET BOTHERS.
If the Chancellor of the Exchequer acted upon some of the funny suggestions he receives, he would soon land the inhabitants of this country in the bankruptcy court, says Tit-Bits. What, for instance, can be thought of the man who suggests the possibility of paying off the National Debt from the gold held in solution in sea water?

It is quite possible that more gold is contained in the waters of the world's oceans than would be sufficient to pay that enormous debt thrice, but the labor of extracting it would be colossal. It is strange how people in search of an inexhaustible source of wealth turn their thoughts seaward. They say to themselves: "There must be millions of money at the bottom of the ocean if we could but get at it." Then they send to the Chancellor all sorts of suggestions, feasible and otherwise, but chiefly otherwise.

Buried Treasure.
Some people have suggested that divers be sent to the bottom of the Atlantic. It never seems to occur to them that the pressure at three miles deep is so terrific that no human being could survive a moment.

Another suggestion comes from cranks who believe that they have the power of "spotting" or "divining" precious metals which may be buried. There is little doubt that during the various civil wars in England much treasure was buried. Smugglers, too, have been responsible for much lost wealth. Now if we could only find this buried treasure, which must amount to millions, what a boon it would be now that taxation is so high!

One old lady sent the Chancellor an extract from an old book in which she had read that if you put a penny out to compound interest, in a hundred years it will have swelled into a fabulous sum. She suggested that the Government should follow this wise plan, and put out what money they had left to compound interest. For surely, she argued, a penny amounts to so much in the course of time, what would a few hundreds of millions grow to?

Pity the Baby.
But some of these suggestions can scarcely be said to be actually being adopted for purposes of taxation. The Dutch Minister of Finance, for instance, lately taxed "all Christian names of a new-born baby with the exception

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKS IN ST. LOUIS

Says It Is Business of States to Prevent War

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 5.—Speaking to-day at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon here, President Wilson said that this nation could not attain the full measure of nationalism without fulfilling its part in the family of nations.

The greatest nationalist, the President said, was the man who wanted his nation to be a great nation. And a great nation, he added, was that which penetrates to the heart of its duty among the nations of the world.

To establish and safeguard the small nations of the world was the purpose of the treaty said the President. Objection had been made to this on the plea that it was "none of our business."

"But it is our business," continued the President, "to prevent war, and if we do not care for the weak nations of the world then we will have war."

Those who objected, Mr. Wilson said, should now show how else peace can be guaranteed. "Let them show," he said, "that they are not absolutely contemptible quitters if they do not see this game through."

The industrial interests of the United States, said the President, reached into European affairs. If the nation only "minded its own business," he said, "it soon would have no other business," and would be isolated politically as well as industrially.

Meantime, the President continued, the treaty would go into effect and great powerful international committees would be set up.

Boycott Feature.

Emphasizing the importance of the boycott feature of the League covenant, the President said he did not think that after that remedy had been applied, war would be necessary.

"That brings a nation to its senses," he said, "just as suffocation removes from an individual all inclination to fight."

Alluding to Article Eleven of the covenant, in which every matter threatening the peace of the world is declared a matter of concern to the League, Mr. Wilson said that would give any nation a right to take a friendly part in the settlement of threatening situations as regards its neighbors.

"And if you must give the secret away," he added, "I wrote those words myself."

NO CANDIDATE NAMED.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 5.—Its ranks thinned by the conversion to the doctrines of the United Farmers of Ontario of many of its most prominent members, the Conservative Association of South Essex, in convention at Kingsville, failed to find a candidate to oppose Lambert Wigle, Liberal member in the Ontario Legislature, in the forthcoming election. Not a single name was placed before the convention, the delegates in the end deciding to defer further action until after the picnic at Leamington next Wednesday, when Premier Hearst is expected to reach the beach in party ranks.

Whitby, Ont., Sept. 5.—The Ottawa correspondent of a local paper says that H. H. Stevens, M. P. for Centre Vancouver, is slated as the second British Columbia member of the Cabinet. He will likely go to the Customs Department, the dispatch adds, and a New Brunswick man may become Secretary of State. Hon. Martin Burrell to act as temporary Secretary. The correspondent also states that Sir Douglas Hazen has been offered a portfolio but has not yet made a decision.

TAHITI BROUGHT BIG CARGO OF PINEAPPLES

The steamship Tahiti, of the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, is now at Vancouver discharging pineapples and other tropical fruits. The cargo totals 4,800 tons, of which 1,200 tons, or 46,000 cases, are pineapples.

The Tahiti was trooping prior to making the present voyage and came to British Columbia to fill in the interim before she can go on drydock to be refitted for the regular passenger and freight service between Australian ports and San Francisco.

Capt. P. Todd is in command of the Tahiti.

CLOSED SEASON TO PROTECT SALMON

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—Although the text of the treaty recently signed at Washington dealing with the Fraser River salmon fisheries has not been published, information reaching here from Ottawa is to the effect that the main features are the creation of a permanent fisheries commission, the institution of a twelve-day closed season each year for seven years, and certain restrictions on the use of trap nets and purse seines in American waters.

SHARP DISCUSSION AT OTTAWA TO-DAY

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—There was a short, sharp discussion on ratification of the peace treaty immediately after the House opened this afternoon.

Sir Robert Borden presented a bill to carry the treaty into effect. In reply to Mr. Devlin, Sir Robert said that this was the legislation to which the resolution on the order paper referred.

OBITUARY RECORD

The death occurred last evening of George William Playfair, at the residence of his son, George Playfair, 1329 George Street. The late Mr. Playfair was 81 years of age, and was born in Lanark County, Ontario. He came to this city but a short time ago, accompanied by Mrs. Playfair, on a visit. The deceased came from Balduf, Manitoba. The remains are reposing at the R. C. Funeral Chapel, and will be forwarded by them to Balduf for interment. Mrs. Playfair will accompany the remains.

NATURE'S RED FLAGS.

Every hedgerow is a mixture of valuable food plants and others which are deadly poisonous, and the eye cannot judge which are harmless and which are harmful.

Indeed, if one attempts to trust to the eye alone, the consequences are bound to be disastrous, for it is a curious fact that many of the most beautiful berries are also the most deadly. What, for instance, could be more lovely than the brilliant crimson fruit of the guelder rose? Yet these berries are decidedly poisonous.

So, too, are the lovely pink berries of the spindle tree, and the scarlet ones of the bitter-sweet.

What could be more exquisite to the eye than the fruit of the deadly nightshade? This plant bears a large black berry which resembles a ripe cherry.

man, aged seventy-four years. Deceased is survived by his wife, daughter, Mrs. Ethelyn Bannerman Campbell, and by two granddaughters. The funeral, which will be private, will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow from the residence, 2149 Granite Street, Oak Bay, after which the remains will be taken to Seattle for cremation. Arrangements are in the hands of the Thompson Funeral Co. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

Interested More in Pensions.—Members of the Imperial Forces Club met in the Central building last night under the chairmanship of Major A. D. MacDonald, to make arrangements for participation in the ceremonies connected with the visit of the Prince of Wales. So many members of the Club, however, were interested in the pension question that the coming visit of the Prince took secondary place. It was announced that the Imperial Government was negotiating with the Dominion Government to make adjustments between the pension scales of the two countries.

POLICE ABANDON STARCH FOR SMITH

Now Satisfied Alleged Murderer is on American Side; Snohomish Returns

The man hunt on Vancouver Island for John Smith, alleged murderer of three Port Angeles fishermen has been abandoned, American and Provincial Police having come to the conclusion that the fugitive is still on the American side of the Straits.

The United States life saving tug Snohomish, which arrived here yesterday, bearing American police officers, patrolled the coast of the Island from Sooke Harbor westward visiting all settlers and camps on the way. No trace either of Smith or of the boat in which he is supposed to have crossed the water from Port Angeles was discovered. Last night, after vain searching, the Snohomish returned to Port Angeles, taking with her Canadian police who returned to Victoria this morning. While it is now believed that Smith is still on the American side, a drag net has been stretched all over Vancouver Island for him. Before another day has passed every camp and every lonely settlement will be on the alert for the alleged slayer and will have a description of him supplied by the Provincial police.

From the very first Provincial police have doubted very much that Smith would come to the Island. In the first place they point to the fact that Smith knows the coast about Port Angeles and Clallam County, and would probably prefer to stay in a country with which he is familiar rather than to come to the Island where he does not know the trails or settlements. On the other hand, if the fugitive exercised any intelligence at all he would perceive that once on the Island it would be a difficult matter to get off, for his description would be known at all points at which he could get a boat.

In spite of these beliefs, however, the Provincial police promptly co-operated with the American authorities and afforded them all assistance possible.

Yesterday local detectives arrested a man in a Victoria hotel who answered Smith's description, but released him when he proved to their satisfaction that he was an innocent resident of Chemainus.

"Alone in a great city!"
"A groan burst from the young man's lips as, with fitful, hurrying footsteps, he dodged the pedestrians in the largest city's widest street."
"Alone in a great city. Ha! That reminds me."
With feverish haste he rushed to the nearest telephone booth.
"How much on this?" he asked, breathlessly, thrusting his overcoat at the proprietor of the establishment.
"Seven shillings."
"Give me the cash!"
He grabbed the money and the pawn ticket and rushed forth into the open air again.
"Alone in a great city!" he chuckled.

VALUABLE WORK IS CARRIED OUT WITH CAMERA IN THE AIR

First Aerial Reconnaissance Carried Out For Provincial Government

PART OF IRRIGATION PLANS FOR OKANAGAN

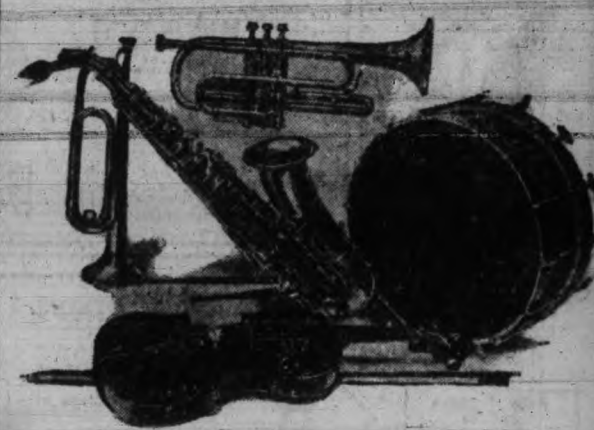

What is believed to be the first commercial aerial reconnaissance over any watershed in Canada has just been carried out by the Water Rights Branch of the Provincial Department of Lands, when the head-water of Harris Creek, near Vernon, was photographed in detail from the seat of a Curtiss machine by Major J. C. MacDonald, Superintendent of Construction in the Okanagan Valley, on Wednesday afternoon last.

The services of Lieut. G. K. Trim, of the Vancouver branch of the Aerial League of Canada, resident temporarily in the city of Vernon, were requisitioned at a reasonable rate and the enterprise carried out in a flight of seventy-five minutes. Major MacDonald acted as guide, observer and photographer.

No information hitherto.

It is explained by the Department of Lands that there existed no reliable information about the section in question and the object of an inspection from the air was to secure some idea of the character of the country on the watershed as a preliminary to surveys for the storage of irrigation water in connection with the plans of the Government.

Smoke from forest fires contributed somewhat to the difficulties of the undertaking, and on that account the photographic results were not as

Present Plans Will Secure Early Establishment of College Course

If present plans mature a two-year university course, in affiliation with the British Columbia University, will be established at the Victoria High School with the opening of the University, or slightly later. As little adjustment will be necessary in the local institution the change will be carried out with no inconvenience to anyone, the pupils of the present Senior Matriculation class being moved into the first year of the new course.

At present the matter is in the hands of a committee of the University Senate, headed by President Kinloch Smith. This committee will meet either this week or next week and will draw up a definite plan for the establishment of the course. This

NOT GUILTY.
A young barrister, whose cases were few, was asked to defend a poverty-stricken tramp accused of stealing a watch.
The barrister pleaded with all the ardour at his command, drawing so pathetic a picture with such convincing energy that at the close of his argument the Court was in tears, and even the tramp wept.
The jury deliberated but a few minutes, and returned the verdict, "Not guilty."
Then the tramp drew himself up, tears steaming down his face as he said to the barrister:
"Sir, I have never heard so grand a plea. I have not cried before since I was a child. I have no money with which to reward you, but (drawing a package from the depths of his ragged clothes) 'here's that watch; take it and welcome."

ESQUIMALT TAX SALE WEDNESDAY

Small Amount of Land to Go Under the Hammer at Annual Sale

A small amount of land will be offered for sale by Esquimalt Municipality at its tax sale to be held on Wednesday. The policy of the Esquimalt Council in determining to hold tax sales regularly has reduced to a great extent the amount of land to go under the hammer. The sale will commence in the Municipal Hall at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Sanich tax sale was held this week, and Oak Bay sale is also timed for next week.

Two piles of apples lay on the ground. One contained a large-sized and rosy selection; the fruit of the other was green and small. "Large on the top, sir, and small at the bottom," inquired the new assistant of his master, as he prepared to fill a barrel. "Certainly not," replied the farmer, virtuously. "Honesty is the best policy, my boy. Put the little apples at the top, and the large ones at the bottom." The assistant complied. His master was evidently as green as his greenest fruit. "Is the barrel full, my lad?" asked the farmer. "Yes," answered the assistant. "Good," said the farmer. "Now turn it upside down and label it!"

ESQUIMALT BEGINS TO MODERNIZE IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

Up-to-Date Public Services Demanded, and Sanitary Regulations Enforced

Esquimalt as a municipality is beginning to experience the troubles, pleasures and excitement of growth. One of the immediate problems that is facing the municipality is the provision of an adequate water service, not only to meet the present demands, the provision for which is now inadequate, but also to make preparation for future developments that are in store for the municipality. At present the officials of the municipality are busy gathering data for submission to the Public Utilities Commission whereby they hope to secure the authorization of the commission to compel the waterworks company to lay adequate water mains on all graded streets. In some parts of the municipality water supply provision has been so neglected in the past and development during the last few years has been so unprecedented that residents in constructing houses have been compelled to bring their water through mains laid over private property. With the filling up of many of the vacant areas of the municipality the municipal authorities are now seeking to have these water supply conditions modernized and systematized.

Demand Better Services. Officials of the municipality are beginning to feel that the municipality is now becoming so populous that it is becoming more exacting in its demands on the public service corporations. Any old service at all is now proving not good enough for the people of Esquimalt, they say. They are demanding services equal to those provided in the larger and more thickly populated municipalities. Another matter along the same lines, that is receiving attention in keeping with the growing consciousness of respectability on the part of the Esquimalt municipality, is that of the condition of some of the houses and buildings in the district. The day is now past when the property owner can hope to carry on with buildings on his property that are insanitary and below the standards of modern construction, appearance and safety. Already the council acting on the advice of the sanitary inspector has ordered the destruction of a number of old houses and other buildings that are an eye sore to the community as well as being a danger to its health.

Modern Fire Protection. On the advice of that official the council has also taken action to force a number of houses to put in sewer and modern plumbing connections. Modern fire equipment is also being longed for now that the municipality is becoming more than a healthy infant. Indications are that although it may cost a bit more, the residents of Esquimalt are not going to be satisfied until they can boast of fire protection equipment, not as extensive perhaps, but as efficient and as modern as that possessed by the City of Victoria. The people of Esquimalt are now talking this matter over amongst themselves and from indications now they will take an important step in advance when they have the chance to vote on them at the next municipal election. General business prosperity, a more rapid growth in population and the prospects of big changes and development following the construction of the new Dominion Government drydock at Esquimalt harbor are all playing their part in bringing about an optimistic outlook and a progressive, courageous and proud municipal spirit.

A LITTLE BALLAST AFT.

With many a hitch of his trousers and pulls at his forelock in respectful salute to justice, Jack Collins, able seaman, was navigated up to the court room railing by a policeman on a charge of cruelty to animals. "He had a paving stone tied to the tail of the horse he was riding, your worship," said the officer who had arrested him. "What was that for?" asked the magistrate. "Well, admiral, that wasn't no cruelty to animals as the officer says, at all," blurted Jack. "I hired that pony craft outside for a short cruise ashore. Soon after getting under way I found the bloomin' old packet wouldn't steer a little bit. She was all down by the head and tacked about the street when the wind was fair astern. Try as I would, I couldn't get steady steerage way on her, and she drifted to windward just as often as she did to leeward. Then, thinks I, she's too tight by the stern, as her heels were constantly lifting and racing just for all the world like our propellers on the ship when she tenses on a big sea. She wants more weight aft," says an old shipmate of mine that I met and then I just got him to help me come to anchor while I shipped a little ballast aft. That's all, your worship. All shipshape and aboveboard, and no reason in the world why this blue and brass-bound corvette here should have overhauled me at all. "Dismissed," said the justice, after Jack had agreed to jettison the ballast and take the "craft" home in "tow," which meant lead the ancient steed back to the stable.

WRECKED BOAT WHICH WAS BLOWN UP WHILST TAKING IN PETROL AT COLOGNE.

WINS OUT IN COURT ON SPEEDING CHARGE

L. D. Rines put up such a good fight in the Saanich Police Court a few days ago when the police charged him with speeding in his motor car, that when the case was called again in court, Magistrate Jay dismissed the charge against him.

The police charged that Mr. Rines in driving into the city a week ago Monday morning from Cordova Bay came down the road on the far side of the City's park at Mount Douglas at a dangerous rate of speed.

Mr. Rines denied that he was speeding and swore that he followed another car all the way down the hill. He wanted to know from the Court why he had been charged with speeding when the police had made no charge against the car which was in front of him and which was making exactly the same speed as he was.

Percy Wollaston, who was riding in the Rines car, testified that they followed the car in front of them all the way down and therefore could not have been traveling faster than it, which the police considered was not exceeding the legal limit.

As the police could not give a satisfactory explanation, Magistrate Jay dismissed the charge against Mr. Rines.

Dear old auntie had been invited to the social gathering in the new garden suburb. While she didn't "hold with these new-fangled ideas," she always sided herself on being sleep-lung-up-to-date in all new developments—social, intellectual and domestic. When she arrived the nieces were waiting to greet her.

"Halloo, auntie, here you are! We're so glad you were able to come. We're going to have something new to-night. We're going to have cabarets vivants." "Yes, I know—I know," replied the old dear. "I could smell 'em as I was coming along. I do hope they'll be as crisp as those we had at Cousin Henry's!"

REV. J. G. INKSTER WELCOMED HOME

Visited England and Scotland During His Three Months Absence

Greeted by a deputation of members of his congregation who were down to the steamer to meet him, the Rev. J. G. Inkster returned to Victoria yesterday after a three months' tour of England and Scotland.

Commenting on industrial conditions as a result of observations made during his tour, the reverend gentleman remarked that in Britain they do not know how things are here, and the people on this side certainly do not know how things are over there. Everywhere in Great Britain the most thoughtful people believe the worst is yet to be, he stated.

During his trip Mr. Inkster gleaned the information from a Salvation Army Commissioner who was for nine months in Russia during the Kerensky and Trotsky regimes that the whole propaganda in Britain and America is being directed and financed by Bolsheviks in Russia. Contrary to the general impression that the Bolsheviks are poor, according to the information supplied Mr. Inkster, they are possessed of fabulous wealth secured by force, with which the propaganda is pursued.

Mr. Inkster attended the Keswick, Cumberland, convention, a convention for the deepening of spiritual life, where ministers of all denominations assembled in an undenominational conference.

Speaking on the aftermath of war he reports that a large fleet is still engaged in the hazardous occupation of mine-sweeping in the North Sea. In Eastern Ontario he met many old friends, including Edward W. Beatty, President of the C.P.R., W. L. MacKenzie King and T. A. Russell, managing director of the Willys Knight Co.

FIREWATER TANGLE COSTS TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS

Jimmy Fraser, half-breed, was making so much noise and having so much fun at the entrance to an ally on Lower Johnson Street, that Constable Jones, who was on the patrol, went over to him to see what all the excitement was about. The man was laughing so hard that he could not reply to the constable.

Striking out of Fraser's hip pocket was the cause. Constable Jones found it to be a bottle of Chinese gin which contained 55 per cent. alcohol. He continued to laugh for several hours after he had been put in the cells. "Where did you get this from?" Magistrate Jay asked Fraser in court to-day.

"I was too drunk to know," replied Fraser in good English. "I don't know where I got it from." "Did you have it?" the Magistrate asked again. "I guess I must have." Further questioning finally revealed the fact that he got it from a Chinaman, but the court could not discover any information to identify the man implicated. Fraser was fined $25.

Event at Preparatory School Swells Memorial Hall Fund

The change in the date and venue of the sale of work and entertainment in aid of the memorial Hall Fund of St. Mary's, Oak Bay, apparently had no deleterious effect upon the proceeds, for throughout afternoon and evening yesterday the event was splendidly patronized. The affair was held in the Victoria Preparatory School, Saratoga Avenue, the stalls and various attractions being housed in the spacious glass-rooms.

Flowers of vivid hues and sweet scent graced the stall over which Miss Hall presided, assisted by Mrs. Hattenbury and Mrs. Dring; home cooking was in charge of Mrs. Montisambert, Mrs. Bullock-Webster and Mrs. Hargrave; "Superstitions" and Touch-and-Take booth, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Ard and Mrs. Barracough; fancy work, Mrs. Philip Goepel, Mrs. Woodhouse and Mrs. Thornton Marshall; and candy, Mrs. J. H. Hinton and Miss Duncan. Ice cream proved a popular feature and Mrs. Norman Lee, assisted by the Misses Kathleen Webster, Helen Laundry and Esther Alexander were kept busy serving this delectable commodity. Delicious afternoon tea was served by a large committee of ladies under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Floyd.

Fortune-telling is always a popular attraction, and many clients patronized the various booths. Miss

OAK BAY TAX SALE TO BE HELD MONDAY

Consistent Policy Has Reduced Land For Sale to 150 Parcels

As a result of its consistent and energetic policy of holding tax sales every year, only 150 parcels of land will be offered for sale by the collector of Oak Bay municipality at its tax sale on Monday.

This will be the smallest sale in the history of the municipality, and will involve only half as much land as was included in last year's sale. The land sold on Monday will be that on which 1917 taxes are delinquent, last year's sale having covered the 1916 delinquency. The sale will start on Monday morning at ten o'clock and will be conducted by Municipal Clerk and Collector Ross.

CATHOLIC GARDEN PARTY.

Owing to the unfavorable weather the garden party and sale work arranged in aid of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes on Wednesday afternoon, took place in the residence of Rev. Father Buckley instead of in the garden as planned. Despite the weather conditions, however, a large number of parishioners attended the affair and as a result a good sum was raised for the church funds.

VICTORIA THE NORTHWEST AND THE WORLD

LEFT TO-DAY FOR WINNIPEG TO BRING ANOTHER LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP TO VICTORIA

Ten Men a Side Championship of Canada Is the Magnet Drawing Cotton Brynjolfson's Shipbuilders East

All tuned up to their best playing pitch, full of the confidence that marks the Foundation teams, and assuring the friends who were down to see them off they would bring home the bacon, the Foundation stickhandlers left Victoria this afternoon to invade Winnipeg, eliminate five other lacrosse teams and bring the ten-a-side championship trophy to stand side-by-side with the other two handsome cups they have secured.

"Cotton Brynjolfson is not a manager who does a lot of talking. The offy time he gives his vocal cords much exercise is when he is on the coaching lines, but he talked enough as the party left to show that he considers the boys have only to play up to the form they have been showing in the Mann Cup race to bring the ten-man-a-side championship home.

The Mann Cup.

It is anticipated that the Victoria men will find five other clubs imbued with the same ambition, Toronto, Cornwall, Winnipeg, Saskatchewan, Regina and Calgary all expecting to have teams on hand for the games which start next Wednesday. The tournament will extend over Thursday and Friday. The re-organization of the National Lacrosse Association is one of the matters to be considered while the players are in Winnipeg.

Worth $1,000.

The handsome piece of goldware that goes to make up the Mann Cup is well worthy of a championship. It is valued at $1,000, $800 worth of gold being used in making it. A low estimate of $200 is made on the excellent workmanship that has been done on the trophy. The Klarnoch Cup, emblematic of the Provincial championship, also goes to the Foundation stickhandlers as a result of their victory in the last series.

The Prince of Wales will be present for the opening of the tournament and the Victoria stickhandlers are also looking forward to seeing Sir Arthur Currie during their trip East. If Sir Arthur is in Winnipeg at the time the tournament takes place they feel certain that he will be an interested spectator in watching the men from his own town fighting for Canadian championship laurels.

"Cornwall and Toronto look like the most dangerous teams we shall be up against," remarked Frank Sweeney, "although we are not worrying about them," added the veteran. "We bring back the mug to Victoria."

Exhibition games will probably be played in Calgary and Regina. The party which left Victoria on the 2:30 boat was composed of Jake Davis, Dutch Clegg, Frank Sweeney, Ernie

LEAGUE CONTROL MAY DEPEND ON JOHNSON TRIAL

Yesterday Hearing the Opening Gun in Battle For Supremacy

New York, Sept. 4.—Efforts to ascertain whether Ban Johnson, president of the American League knew that Pitcher Carl Mays had been traded by the Boston club to New York when he ordered his suspension as a "disciplinary action," failed at to-day's hearing before the trial of the New York club's suit against Johnson for damages alleged to have been suffered because of the Mays order.

The hearing will be continued on September 11, to which date adjournment was taken. Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel T. L. Huston, of the New York club, attended the examination of Johnson.

Control of the American League is said to depend on the result of Johnson's trial, and the hearing to-day was regarded as the opening gun in the battle for supremacy between clubowners and Johnson.

Johnson was asked more than one hundred questions touching on his knowledge of Mays' conduct while with the Boston club and the action Johnson took regarding it. His first knowledge of Mays' "desertion of the Boston club," was a verbal report by the umpire, he said. He said that he waited for the Boston club to suspend Mays, "as primary jurisdiction was vested in the local club," but stated that he had no intention at that time of suspending Mays if Boston did not do so.

Johnson admitted that he issued the order suspending Mays two days after the New York club had acquired the pitcher, adding that he "notified Mr. Barrow, manager of the Boston club."

Johnson identified certain telegrams and copies of letters sent to five other clubowners in the league, telling them that Mays had "deserted in violation of his contract for three years at $8,000 a year," and asking that no other club entertain the idea of acquiring Mays' services.

RUBY MEN MEET TO RE-ORGANIZE TO-NIGHT

The annual general meeting of the Victoria Rugby Football Union is being held to-night at 8 o'clock in the Belmont Building, Humboldt Street. All players and those interested in the game are invited to attend, and delegates have been asked from all organizations in the city that are considering entering a team. Owing to practically every rugby player having gone overseas in the early stages of the war the local Union suspended the senior league competition till the war was over. A good meeting which it is hoped will result in a real revival of the game is anticipated. To-night's meeting will also officers, hear the report and balance sheet and discuss the policy for the season.

of members turned out to witness the race, and great excitement prevailed at the finish.

An Exciting Finish.

Both crews got away to a good start when Starter Dan O'Sullivan gave the word, and rowed neck and neck right down the course, both striving hard to obtain a lead. When the final spurt was called for by both strokes the crews were running practically even, and every effort was put forth by each to reach the finishing line first. The race was only decided in the last couple of lengths, when Johnson's crew shot ahead, winning by a bare three feet.

"Blue Bird" Was Used.

The newly acquired speed boat "Blue Bird," of the J. B. A. A., was again used by the starter and judges, and simplifies the work of these officials greatly, as the boat can keep well up with the crews during the entire race. It is a big acquisition for the club, and will be of great assistance in training the crews for the N. P. A. A. O. regatta next year.

General Meeting.

A general meeting of all members of the J. B. A. A. is called for next Tuesday evening at 8 in the club rooms, Belleville Street, when a large attendance is requested as several matters of great importance will be brought up for discussion and decision.

The winning crews consisted of H. J. Johnson, stroke; Chamberlain, 3; Cummins, 2; J. V. Simpson, bow.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The American handicap at the Willows courts has reached the semi-finals, two matches being settled yesterday despite the rain. Mrs. Marston and Brown disposed of Miss Wilson and Gordin in two sets, 6-2, 6-1; Mr. Hincks and Miss Scott winning by default from Mrs. Taylor and Miss Hodgins owing to one of the ladies' pair meeting with an accident. The semi-finals will be played this evening between Mrs. Marston and Brown (scratch) against Miss Camus and Mrs. Irwin (—15), and Miss Swan and Dr. Young (—13 3-5) against Miss Scott and Hincks (—15 3-5).

INCOME TAX LAW WILL AFFECT BALL PLAYERS

Albany, N.Y., Sept. 5.—Professional baseball players and umpires, no matter what their club affiliations may be, who participate in games played in New York State this year, will be subject to the provisions of New York's income tax law, Comptroller Eugene M. Travis ruled today.

This means, it was explained at the comptroller's office, that players and umpires of the National, American and International Leagues, whose residences and home teams are located in other states, will be required to pay an income tax on money earned while they are playing in New York. This amounts to more than $1,000.

Coincidentally, players and umpires of New York clubs will not be required to pay a tax on their salaries earned in games played outside of the state.

HISTORY FOR THE LACROSSE FANS

Some Momentous Battles Between Victoria, Vancouver and Westminster

A glimpse at the British Columbia lacrosse record since 1890 is of interest at this time. Here it is: 1890, Victoria; 1891, Vancouver; 1892, Vancouver; 1893, Victoria; 1894, Westminster; 1895, Westminster; 1896, Vancouver; 1897, Westminster; 1898, Westminster; 1899, Westminster; 1900, Westminster; 1901, Westminster; 1902, Westminster; 1903, Vancouver; 1904, Vancouver; 1905, Westminster; 1906, Westminster; 1907, Westminster; 1908, Westminster; 1909, Westminster; 1910, Westminster; 1911, Vancouver; 1912, Westminster; 1913, Westminster; 1914, Westminster; 1915, Westminster; 1916, No series; 1917, No series; 1918, Vancouver; 1919, Westminster.

When Old Timers Talk.

New Westminster has always had the support of the whole town in their battle for lacrosse honors and in the days of the red hot battles when the Vancouverite was greeted with "Oh, you Crabbeater," and came back with "Salmonbelly," when the fan in the next seat to you was ready to fight if you suggested that Vancouver might win, the good looks and feelings of the Vancouver players and fans who, according to the Royal City were not worth a plugged nickel. But it was great sport, and the old timers recall with a feeling of pride the days of real sport in the west, the drive by horse and buggy down the dusty Westminster Road, now a paved street, and the stirring battles. And the old Vancouver fan still takes great delight in relating the game in New Westminster many years ago when suits of clothes were at stake.

The Vancouverites were, as usual, running a good second and there was some difficulty experienced in gathering the players together for the game. New Westminster, in fact, all headed for New Westminster to win. Nothing to it was the way they had it figured and so confident were the Royal City players of lowering the colors of the Terminal that they ordered the suits in advance. Herb Ryall, still treasurer of the Royals, and a player in those days was one of them. The suits were cut from the finest cloth and the boys were all ready to make their debut following the victor. But the dope was upset. The Vancouver officials, failing to secure all of the regular players, induced half a dozen intermediaries to go over and make up the team. And what happened—Vancouver put over a surprise victory. Won the suits they had ordered in advance. It was probably the greatest upset in the history of western lacrosse. There are many other interesting tales told of the early days of western lacrosse when the teams were made up of home-brews.

Back in 1900.

Back in 1900 the Vancouver camps were divided and the Y.M.C.A. headed by Archie MacNaughton, commander of the fold, while the Vancouverites headed by "Bones" Buckling continued in the running. The Y's got the cream of the lacrosse talent but they failed to land a berth in the league although later they went to Montreal in quest of the Minto Cup and lost, 5-0. In 1905 Seattle became a member of the league and remained in for one season. Lionel York headed the Sound City club but after one game in New Westminster when Tom Gifford and a few of his assistants on the defense sat and ate ice cream cones while the home team played the Seattle net full of holes the American club decided that means wasn't worth a tinker's darn and forthwith withdrew. Still later Vancouver had a second team, the old Maple Leafs and they gave New Westminster a close run for a couple of years and also made it mighty uncomfortable for the Vancouverites.

Merry Scraps.

The rivalry between the local teams was intense and many a merry scrap resulted between the players and supporters of the team. The Leafs held out at the Point and the Vancouverites at Recreation Park and any time they tangled there was something doing. The Leafs dropped out after two seasons in the league, the clubs practically amalgamating. It was not until 1910 that Con Jones broke into the lacrosse game. He spent a lot of money bolstering up his club and between 1910 and 1918 imported no less than twenty-five players. Many of them failed to make good but some proved winners among them being Pickering, Ian, Adamson, Howard, Allen, Lalonde, Fitzgerald, Griffith, the late Nick Carter and Bun Clark. Some of them are still in the game both on the coast and in the east. Dot Phelan, one of Con's importations, is at present secretary of the Cornwall club. He played here with the champion team of 1911.

Centrals Will Meet Shipbuilders at Royal Athletic Park

The Centrals of Vancouver, runners up in the city championship of the Mainland, are coming to Victoria tomorrow to meet the Foundation nine, runners up in the Victoria city championship, and all who have seen both teams in action predict some snappy baseball when the two teams meet. Although the Centrals failed to come out on top after some hard-fought playoffs with Wallace, they are picked by a lot of the Mainland fans as a superior team to the one which secured the championship. The Foundation nine, although they did not get the title, were so securely on top during the season that they are not regarded as a second-rate ball club.

In Clayton, Brethour and Lowry the visitors have a pitching staff which is more than ordinary class for amateur baseball and whichever one they put on the mound the local fans will see a good man in action.

The shipbuilders have strengthened their side by the addition of Johnny Cumming and Smiler Pettigrew. The two players have just arrived back from overseas and from all accounts have been playing sensational baseball over the other side of the pond. The game is due to start at 3 o'clock.

YOUNG CAMPERS PLAY INDIANS AND PIRATES EXCITING BASEBALL GAMES FOR CUSTARD PIES

Camp Merindale, the boys' camp at Patricia Bay, operated by the Boys' Work Committee of the Y.M.C.A. closed a very successful season last Saturday. The camp grew in popularity as the season progressed and during the last week had a capacity crowd of boys. Opening on July 16 and appealing to all boys in the district of Victoria—the camp proved one of the leading features of the school vacation—and 23 different boys were accommodated in the district of Victoria—the period of six weeks.

Goal Location.

The camp location which was generously loaned by Reeve Jones of Saanich proved ideal in every respect. The cook house and dining room was located in the apple orchard, the sleeping tents were beautifully sheltered field that also served admirably for the exciting baseball games. The camp director, R. C. Crompton is a believer in the game of play-ground baseball for boys' camps. It is the outdoor game played with an indoor baseball. The game is easier for novices to play, there are fewer runs, the exciting moments come often, and many boys who cannot play when they arrive at camp learn the joy of sharing in team play.

Custard Pie Prizes.

The camp teams were invariably dubbed "Bartenders" versus "Bread-winners," and juicy fruit and custard pies were awarded the winners. The boys were taught to swim at the camp, and many boys were the correct crawl and trudgeon strokes. The swimming periods daily were very popular.

FOUNDATION CLUB OFFICERS ELECTED

Secretary Report Shows Activities of Foundation Organizations

Between 250 and 300 members were present at the meeting of the Foundation Organizations held last night at the clubhouse and some spirited voting on the election of officers took place. Frank Hopkins was chosen president, receiving 100 votes. Clark, the old president received 88 votes. Sam Trew was elected vice-president, H. A. Humber, secretary and J. E. Burris, treasurer, were re-elected by acclamation. The directors from each yard were elected as follows: Point Hope: Charlie Burnett, J. Mesher and H. Godson; Point Elliot: Frank Kelly, Hugh Paterson, H. Bayliss; Odgen Point: Billy Kennedy, D. R. Finnich and E. L. Irvine.

Secretary's Report.

Secretary Humber in presenting the first annual report stated the new enterprise was expected to furnish suitable entertainment, healthy amusement, and adequate recreation to the workers in the yards; to inculcate and foster a spirit of fellowship amongst its members; to open up channels and to provide opportunities for the development of their athletic resources, and, in short, to extend a helping hand to any project which had for its object the furthering of the spirit of "Co-operation and Fellowship" throughout the Foundation family of employers and employees. The splendidly equipped clubrooms which they now occupied had only been recently opened, and through the generosity of the Foundation Company, had been placed at their disposal, entirely free of cost, thereby relieving the members of the worry which the acquisition of club quarters would have occasioned them and leaving them free to concentrate their efforts on raising funds to finance the various activities which they then had in mind, and which had proved so signally successful since. Commencing with a bank balance of practically nil, and assuming the responsibility for expenditures previously authorized in connection with the winter sports then running, the Directors have since, in addition to financing these activities, successfully raised, financed also the Baseball Club, Cricket Club, Yard League, the Tug-of-War Club, the Boxing Club and the Swimming Club, besides carrying through other projects of considerable magnitude which called for the exercise of much courage and foresight.

Social Activities.

The provision of social entertainments has always held a prominent position in the policy of the Directorate, he said, "and in this connection they can point with pardonable pride to the work of the Foundation Concert and Dramatic Club which has on several occasions furnished delightful entertainments."

"The dances held under the auspices of the various activities have become a recognized institution in the city and are looked forward to with keen anticipation by devotees of this form of amusement. A valuable assistance in this particular line of activity has been the Girls' Club, which has always given us undivided support."

Reputation in Sports.

"In the realms of sport the Foundation colors have borne a conspicuous and a beneficial part, and in all branches of athletics the boys have won for themselves and for the Organizations an enviable reputation. The collection of trophies which adorn the Club-rooms speaks eloquently of proficiency in many fields of manly exercises and gives evidence also that in this as well as in other activities the efforts have not entirely been a failure. Their record in sport so far includes the winning of the City Hockey championship cup, the City Basketball championship cup, the senior and intermediate soccer island championship cups and the Rugby championship cup. In addition to the above they had also won cups for swimming, Tug-of-War and Rowing, and the Lacrosse team, besides winning the Kilmarnock cup, has been successful in bringing the Mann cup, emblematic of the World's championship in Lacrosse in Victoria for the first time."

Baseball.

"The baseball team, while being unlucky in losing the game which

"Bucket o' Blood."

The camp boats "Leaky Lizzie" and "Bucket o' Blood" two halibut fishing dories loaned by Mr. J. Beckwith were frequent visitors crowded with boys at beaches and bays throughout Saanich Inlet. Three trips were made to Salt Spring Island and Mount Washington climbed. Shawigan Lake was also accessible—the boys sailing over to the Bay and then hiking the three miles for the Island Highway. Twelve Duncan boys spent a week at the camp, making the journey via Shawigan and from Mill Bay in the camp boats.

Pirates and Indians.

Trips were also made to Brentwood, the Cement Works, Butchart's Gardens and to Deep Bay frequently. They also were guests at two regattas and sports events at Kennedy's Beach and Brennan's Beach, Sidney. At the former affair a sea battle between pirates and Indians was staged successfully. Mr. Crompton was ably assisted by camp leaders G. W. Stubbs and Mr. N. H. Collins. Mr. Stubbs left the camp last week to take over his new position as principal of Courtenay public school, setting a rousing send off by the campers.

Will Hold Re-Union.

All campers are to be invited to a re-union in the Y.M.C.A. on Friday September 12, when Mr. W. N. Kelly will act as host. The boys will be banqueted and treated to a show. The re-union is being postponed from this Friday because of the repairs being made to the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium and swimming tank.

decided the city championship, had nevertheless, earned the reputation of being the best team seen in Victoria in years, and their record of fifteen victories out of sixteen games and a team from each of the three yards, is engaged in a struggle for the inter-yard championship.

Boxing Titles.

They had a boxing club whose members had added lustre to the Foundation name by the ability displayed and by the clean, sportsmanlike manner in which they had invariably conducted themselves. They, too, have brought their share of honors to the Organizations, their records including two F. N. A. championships, won at Tacoma this year, besides winning many events in inter-city tournaments. They have also a splendid swimming club whose showing for a first season was most gratifying, and whose efforts in the line of social entertainments has proved an excellent cement for the Foundation stones of an Organization such as this.

"The acquisition of the Royal Athletic Park is another instance of the businesslike methods characteristic of the policy which our Directors have at all times endeavored to carry out."

"The Foundation Organizations have a lease on this property until May 1, 1920. It is at the services of our athletes at all times and everything so far supports the belief that the securing of the ground was a splendid piece of business."

"As previously mentioned, the Board of Directors commenced operation with a bank balance of practically nothing. To-day the Treasurer showed a surplus of something in the vicinity of $1,500."

Victoria secured all but one of the provincial aquatic titles this season. Out of sixteen events one went to the Mainland, the 220 yards, which was won by Brydone-Jack, of Vancouver, at the gala held by the Terminal City club. The Victoria Amateur Swimming Club tops the list with seven crowns won. The V. I. A. A. running them a close second with six titles tucked away. The Y. M. C. A. got two British Columbia championships. Audrey Griffin was way ahead in individual honors, winning five of the titles credited to the club.

A Diagram
PictureNote the Pointed Corn

Why Corns Hurt

Note this diagram picture of a corn. Note its conical shape. The cause of the corn is pressure. And pressure makes it hurt. The point of the corn is pushed into the sensitive tissue. Applying a Blue-jay corn ender removes the pressure. Note the felt ring (A) in the picture below. The ring gives barefoot comfort in the tightest shoe.

But that is temporary. One should not continue a ring. The corn should be quickly ended.

The bit of B&B wax in the center of the ring does that (marked B in illustration below). In two days, usually, the whole corn disappears. It stops the pain, then ends the corn. And it wraps the corn so the action is undisturbed.

Then the action of the B&B wax is centered on the corn. Held there by the rubber adhesive tape (C) which wraps comfortably around the toe. Healthy tissue is not affected.

These are the reasons why millions of people have adopted the Blue-jay method. Keeping corns is folly when this easy way can end them. Treating them in cruder ways is inexcusable.

For your own sake, convince yourself by applying Blue-jay to one corn.

HAS BEEN PRESIDENT FOR ELEVEN YEARS

Mrs. F. Bickford, of Colwood
Women's Institute, Has Fine Record

WAS PIONEER OF VICTORIA

To have been the president of the Colwood Women's Institute since its organization nearly eleven years ago is the proud record of Mrs. F. Bickford of Colwood, who during her long term of office has seen the organization grow until it is acknowledged to be one of the most progressive Institutes on Vancouver Island.

Came in the 'Seventies.

A pioneer of Vancouver Island, Mrs. Bickford has proved that she is well endowed with that determination and resource which seems to have been the special prerogative of the early settlers. Born in Somerset, England, Mrs. Bickford came when a young woman to British Columbia, arriving in Victoria in the early 'seventies after an adventurous journey. The whole trip took five weeks, of which twelve long days and nights were spent in the journey across the United States by the Union-Pacific line. Sleeping and dining cars were unknown in those days, and the many discomforts of the journey included a "hold-up" in Omaha.

However, the longest journey has its end, and Mrs. Bickford finally arrived at her destination, Victoria, in the ill-fated "Pacific," which later foundered with 400 souls on board. Her husband was a cabinet-maker by occupation and to quote Mrs. Bickford's own words, "his success at the trade to which he had served as long apprenticeship made me decide to open up a dry-goods business here, to which I had served an apprenticeship in England." Mrs. Bickford conducted a business of this nature for twenty-two years on Yates Street, and her store was well known to old timers of the city and district.

Took up Land.

The lure of the land then tempted Mr. and Mrs. Bickford to Colwood—at that time considered a far cry from the city—and there they have remained to this day, taking a deep interest in the welfare of the community and contributing in no small degree to its upbuilding.

The Women's Institute at Metchoon was the first founded on Vancouver Island, and Colwood was the second. Its present membership is 22, and it owns a piano and a library of 400 books. Mrs. Bickford was elected president at the organization meeting and has remained in office ever since. Advancing years—she is well over the sixty mark—have in no way dimmed her keen sense of initiative or her organizing ability while her indomitable energy might well be the envy of women of half her years.

Won Special Prize.

Last year the Advisory Board to the Institute offered a prize of a silver photo frame to the member of any Institute who secured the greatest number of new members in a given time. The competition was open to all the Women's Institutes, and to the lasting pride of Colwood, Mrs. Bickford proved the winner.

Despite the handicaps imposed upon the women of the farming districts by the shortage of help during the war, Colwood Institute has had a splendid record of patriotic work and increased food production, its members worked valiantly, as testified by the success of their annual flower shows.

Mr. Bickford's "Bit."

Although three score years and ten have passed over his head, Mr. Bickford's spirit is of the true patriotic order. As his "bit" he worked throughout the war to keep the Colwood Agricultural Hall, to which are attached the Institute headquarters, free from debt. By his own efforts he kept the insurance paid on the building so that the men of the district who went overseas would find it unencumbered by debt on their return.

"Elysium."

Take me where the tall green grass is,
Where the daisy opens her eye,
Lifts her beautiful pink-fringed lashes
To the azure of the sky.

Where the buttercup, all glistening,
Bows her dainty, golden head,
While her warm ear is listening
To the ladybug's soft tread.

Where we have to guard our footfalls,
As we step on mossy glades,
Lest we bruise the tender violets
Growing in these leafy shades.

Where the rocks seem fairy castles,
Tapestried from Nature's looms;
And the ants, like busy vassals,
Defly to and fro amid the blooms.

Where the lovely "Easter" lily
Bends to greet each little child;
Symbol of our risen Saviour,
Gentle Jesus, meek and mild.

Where we catch the perfect sweetness
Of the lady slipper's breath;
Where we sense the Great Eternal,
And we know there is no death.

HOARDING.

To the Editor.—In your issue tonight, Mr. McElhannon, of the A. S. Refineries, Ltd., accuses the public of hoarding sugar, but if he and others of his persuasion read, mark and learn, they may be able to distinguish between hoarding and storing.

A judge across the line warns the public thus: "Hoarding is holding for an advance in price, storing is providing against a lean time. Now, Sir, as the public do not buy to sell again, they cannot possibly be hoarding sugar, hence the word 'hoarding' is a misnomer. The cautious housewife or her husband thinks it best to get in a little extra it can only be classed as storing against higher prices later on, or against a time of possible unemployment in a lean time also.

Certain it is that what little they get more than present needs, cannot make the shortage any more acute. The suffering public, however, must put up with any advance the monopolies choose to make, and no alleviation can come till the profiteers are forced to let go.

QUADRA STREET CEMETERY.

To the Editor.—Mr. Philip King's article in your Wednesday issue of The Times must have been of interest to many. I found it unusually interesting, having regard to the fact that something of the same feeling as expressed by your correspondent possessed me when first viewing this old corner of Victoria some years ago.

I remember distinctly the impression it made on me at that time—an erroneous one, by the way—for I felt I had come amongst a people with little or no use for sentiment.

Like Mr. King I should be glad to know how this quaint place became transformed, by whose direction and why. I wonder if any of your readers could enlighten us!

This converted burial ground suggests possibilities for the city, the mind conjuring up a mental picture of Ross Bay at some future date—its tombstones neatly and artistically arranged along the sea-wall or embedded in concrete; while the gentle slope, covered with grass, affords the finest tennis facilities to the public. We have an excellent precedent, so what is to prevent it?

ADVICE FOR THE COUNCIL.

To the Editor.—After reading Tuesday night's Times I am more than ever convinced that the sooner the city election takes place the better it will be for the people. It seems the more trivial the matter the more attention it gets. Recently there were hours of good time thrown away on a by-law that was utterly unnecessary and a direct slap at all the married people in our city and, goodness knows, fathers and mothers have enough trouble these days to provide bread and butter, without paying $25 fines on their children for playing on the street. It is God's blessing some of the City Fathers have enough mentality to know that the Police Court and the jail are the last places in the city we want our children to get familiar with, though, unfortunately, there are some people who seem to think that children should be raised in coops like the chickens. How soon they seem to forget the well known words "your country needs you," but, as a boy, why you are simply an undesirable citizen.

On the other hand, in a matter which concerns the records of the city and may lead the city into considerable expense, they dismiss it as of no account. I refer to the acceptance of the resignations of the City Assessor and Plumbing Inspector on a matter of salary. These officials have been in the city's employ for some time, and during these years must have accumulated a great amount of knowledge invaluable to our city. This knowledge can not be picked up from records on file or hearsay, but is the result of close application to duty. Therefore, in the interests of the citizens of Victoria it is for the Council to think well, not considering their own personal feelings in the matter, before throwing away serviceable records. The Mayor and Council are elected by the citizens as directors of a business concern, to look after the affairs of the city, and there is something radically wrong when those directors will allow two experienced employees to leave positions which must be immediately filled, and at the same salary, and probably more, without giving it serious consideration. It is much like trading a valuable record for a blank disc.

If some of our aldermen have axes to grind in this matter, I would suggest that they grind them at home, and not at the expense of the city. Let them give these officials fair consideration and not be so ready to wield the broom. Probably away back among their old historical cobwebs, they may remember Van Tromp and his broom, and it may be the duty of the citizens to represent the British fleet later in that application.

A. CAMPBELL KENNEDY,
Victoria, B. C.

ONE LAST TRY.

The colonel had put in six claims for his traveling allowances, which amounted to about five shillings, and each time his Army Form Number Umpleen (or whatever it is) had come back for amendment.

At last he thought he had his claim properly prepared, and for the seventh time sent it to "the proper authority." Again he was doomed to disappointment, for his claim came back with the item "Porter, 6d." underlined with blue pencil and with a slip attached informing him that no allowance could be made for refreshments.

Undeterred, the colonel wrote back explaining that the "Porter" was not a drink, but a man who had carried his kit.

Back came the claim again with a note to the effect that "Porter" should then read "Porterage." Sorrowfully taking up his pen once more, the colonel wrote out his claim afresh. When he had finished it read as follows: "Porter, or Porterage, 6d. Cab, or Cabbage, 4s. 6d. P.S.—If this isn't right you can keep your beasty five bob!"

When is a confession not a confession?

A wonderful girl, as mysterious as she is attractive. . . . An officer of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. . . . The great north country, the scent of pine trees in the air. . . . A confession that turned everything topsy-turvy. Read "The Valley of Silent Men" and you will realize why the other big story, "The River's End," by the same famous author, was followed eagerly by hundreds of thousands of readers. You can't help but join the followers of James Oliver Curwood.

How the Crown Prince treats his wife

Princess Cecile was a wonderful child. She had all the charm that Russian parentage and French culture could give her. She inherited an intense hatred for Germany, and then, against her will, she was forced to marry the German Crown Prince.

What has happened since then is told by one of her closest friends, Princess Radziwill. It is one of the most astounding chapters of court life ever published.

43 Ways to fight the H. C. of L.

Concerning the general work of the home. Good Housekeeping gives 43 distinct ways to fight the higher cost of living. Every one of the ideas has been actually tried, tested and found practical. They'll save not only money but time, friction, worry and effort. As an added feature appear the tested menus and directions for four complete dinners. And Good Housekeeping, too, serves as a guaranteed buying guide for household equipment to fill every possible need.

Paris—and the winter fashions

Know the right fashions and avoid costly mistakes. Good Housekeeping for September contains more Fashions than it has ever before published in one issue. Not the freaks of Fashion but the new, wearable, clothes of distinction. One article tells where to find the latest styles and the fair price to pay. Another, gives the dressmaking points in the newest clothes. A third tells what is latest in corsets, shoes and gloves. 90 illustrations feature this complete department.

Parents are criminals

—if they do not observe the injunctions laid down by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley in his startling article "Making the New American." It is the duty of the state to deny marriage certificates to certain people. Who they are, and why, are features of this article. The sex problem and the various crises in a child's life are discussed authoritatively and constructively.

Do you know?

Do you know that a 93 year old woman is still in business? Do you know the newest ideas for a home entertainment? Would you like to have 3 pages in color just for the kiddies? These are just a few of the features contained in the largest issue of any woman's magazine ever published. Among the other authors in the same issue are: William J. Locke, Elsie Janis, Fanny Heaslip Lea, Dr. Frank Crane, Coningsby Dawson, Ida M. Evans, Louis Untermeyer, Dorothy Dix.

Vancouver Company Did Not Violate Prohibition Act Selling Extracts

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—Magistrate Shaw this morning dismissed the charge against the W. H. Walker Company of selling liquor in the form of lemon extract, brought by R. H. Young, secretary of the Campaigners of the Great War. The case was taken up under the Prohibition Act. In dismissing the case the court ruled that the Prohibition Act in this province does not prohibit the sale of perfumes and extracts any more than it prohibits the sale of wood alcohol for commercial purposes. It is because some persons drink wood alcohol.

Prince of Wales Would Meet Many of Citizens There

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—There is a possibility that the ball proposed here in honor of the Prince of Wales will not be held and instead a great public reception will be tendered him. It is understood the question of the advisability of calling off the ball is under discussion by those who have the matter in hand.

IRREGULARITY IN STOCK MARKET

Market Was Weakened by the Recent Elimination of Short Interest

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)
New York, Sept. 5.—Quotations were more orderly at the opening of the stock market today. Numerous shorts in the specialties, which have been conspicuously strong of late, were reported to have sold privately; this gave the trading element an opportunity to view the situation more quietly. More were inclined to take shorting in the morning session, but did not hold the gains made. The bulls were hoisted in the morning session, and announced near the close of the session that they had been agreed to sell about a conference between the steel workers and the U. S. Steel Corporation in an effort to avert a threatened strike. The market steadied on the report.

Government merchant marine will be the S.S. Canadian Raider, now under construction at the Wallace shipyards in North Vancouver. This vessel, according to information given out by General Traffic Manager Brostedt, of Canadian National Railways, yesterday, is to be berthed in Vancouver about November 15 to take on general cargo for Australia and New Zealand, and is capable of taking 8,100 tons. On her arrival at the Antipodean ports she will be loaded for Vancouver again.

This is the first attempt of the Government to give Vancouver service both outward and inward by any of the new Canadian boats, and an endeavor is made to have several other locally-built steamers follow the lead of the Canadian Raider.

The other Canadian steamers are being utilized for loading lumber out of Vancouver, and the 8,100-ton steamer now under construction at the Coughlin yards will also be used for that purpose, according to present arrangements.

It is expected that a special ceremony will be provided for the first sailing of Canada's merchant marine service on the Pacific.

In view of the announcement that the Coughlin-built ships are to remain on the Pacific, it is considered likely that the 8,100-tonner building at Victoria and Prince Rupert, on completion, will also be operated out of British Columbia ports. The first of the Pacific fleet to be completed, the Canadian Volunteer, recently arrived in the United Kingdom from Genoa Bay, B.C.

HUDSON IS AWAY ON MAIDEN VOYAGE

Another French Ship Puts to Sea For Europe With B. C. Lumber

The Hudson, another Foundation-built ship, put to sea this week for France, laden with British Columbia lumber.

She will be followed early next week by the steamer Winnipeg, which is now loading lumber in the Inner Harbor. The Montreal is on berth and the Ontario is now at Ogden Point awaiting loading orders. Captain Bernard, master of the Ontario, has granted permission to inspect his vessel to people desiring to do so. This is the first opportunity offered to Victorians to inspect a completed vessel, which is purely a local product.

The Trois Rivières, ninth ship to be outfitted by the Foundation Company at Ogden Point, will go around to Yarrow to-morrow to be overhauled preparatory to leaving on her trials on Monday.

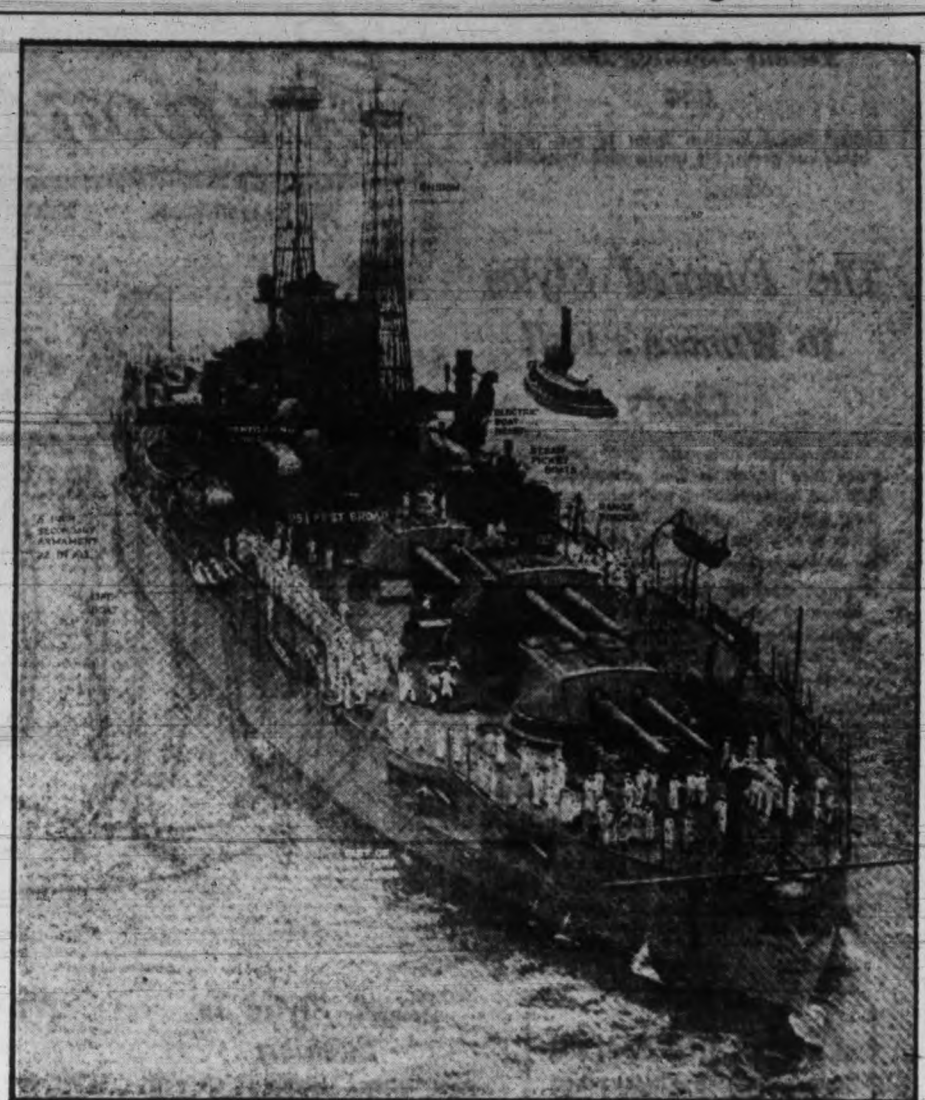

"Father," queried little Johnny, "what's a compromise?"

"A compromise, my son, is an agreement whereby both parties get what they don't want," replied his father.

After Vacation Peel Your Discolored Skin

Women returning from the seashore with browned, reddened or freckled complexions will be wise in immediately taking up the mercurized wax treatment. Weather-beaten skin had best come off, for no amount of "beautifying" will ever make such skin pretty to look at. The surest, safest, easiest way to shed the discolored cuticle is with the treatment suggested. Put the wax on before retiring, as you would cold cream, and rinse it off next morning with warm water. Minute particles of scurf skin will peel off day by day, gradually showing the healthy, youthful skin beneath. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and satiny soft. Its action is so gentle no harm is caused and the face shows no trace of its use.

Is With United States Pacific Fleet; Dreadnought New York

The dreadnought New York, which will be seen at Seattle shortly with the new U. S. Pacific Fleet, was completed in May, 1914. She displaces 27,000 tons and is armed with ten 14-inch guns, smaller weapons and four torpedo tubes. The Texas is a sister ship. The above picture was taken from the Brooklyn Bridge and gives an excellent impression of the big warship.

TRAINING SHIP MADE CALL HERE

Wooden Steamer Brookdale Visited Port Last Night After Cruise in Straits

Acquired a few months ago by the United States Shipping Board for the purposes of a training ship, the wooden steamer Brookdale was in port last night after completing one of her periodical cruises out of Seattle.

The Brookdale is under the command of Capt. Oliver Beaton, who for many years ran into this port as skipper of one of the Puget Sound Towboat Company's tugs. He was selected to command the training ship Iroquois and frequently brought that vessel here during the war. In addition to her complement of officers the Brookdale carries seventy-five youths in training for the United States merchant service. A product of the Aberdeen shipyards, the Brookdale was pressed into training service to replace the steamers Iroquois and Chippewa, which earlier in the year were turned back to their owners, the Puget Sound Navigation Company. During the war the training ships of the United States Shipping Board trained several thousand apprentices for the newly formed merchant marine. After qualifying in deck and engine-room courses these boys are transferred to cargo carriers operating under the United States flag.

The Brookdale is a ship of 3,000 tons gross and has a cruising speed of ten knots. She is one of the Ferris type.

FEARED SABLE ISLAND.

Halifax, Sept. 5.—Radio operators at Campden, near here, were unable to-day to get into communication with the station at Sable Island. A message from Sable Island shortly before midnight last night said the station was on fire and it was feared here that it has been destroyed.

The steamer Princess Mary, of the C. P. R. Alaskan fleet, which is now laid up at this port for refit, will resume service to Skagway on September 19. For the next two weeks she will be in the hands of the engineers, who will make a thorough overhaul of her machinery, and the vessel will be dry-docked before she is again placed in commission. On what is expected to be her last trip in the Alaskan service this season the steamer Princess Alice is scheduled to sail from Vancouver to-morrow night. She will return September 16 and unless further arrangements are made in the meantime for a continuance of the double service, the larger steamer will be withdrawn from the northern trade and pressed into the southern trade. Travel to and from Alaska ports is still brisk, and with the annual fall exodus from the great North country there will be a big demand for accommodation on the available steamers.

The winter service to Skagway will be maintained by the Princess Mary. The Princess Maguire, which left this port September 2, is now making her usual calls on the west coast of Vancouver Island. The vessel was delayed a day in sailing owing to her being used as a special steamer to take care of the holiday traffic out of this port.

The steamer Tees is at Nootka loading fish. She is making her first trip to the West Coast since being released by the Pacific Salvage Company. Her starboard will be painted the C. P. R. buff color upon her return.

Y. M. C. A. TO COMBAT POST-WAR UNREST

Local Organization Launched Last Night on Peace Work With Large New Staff

Victoria Y. M. C. A. launched its after-war reconstruction work last night at a dinner at the building given by President George McGregor to officers of the organization and their wives. The new officials recently appointed were introduced. The post-war work of the Association is to be aimed at combating restlessness prevalent all over the country, according to R. W. Mayhew, chairman of the western section of the Y. M. C. A. National Council. He said that there was a restlessness on the part of everybody, chiefly among the men who have returned from the front, and their restlessness is being spread to other parts of the population. He said the Y. M. C. A. should adapt itself to fill the want in the lives of these returned men.

To play the part in the lives of the men back from the front, and young men generally in the community, that the Y. M. C. A. did for the men in France, should be the object of the organization in these peace days, said Stanley Young, new social secretary of the Victoria Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. will find its reconstruction work much more difficult than it did the war work and must be even better equipped to meet this than it was to serve the forces overseas, said H. Ballantyne, secretary for the western division of the National Council. He pointed out that in handling the war situation, the Y. M. C. A. was able to deal with large quantities of humanity in bulk and under conditions which practically gave the organization a monopoly. All the money that was needed to carry on this work was willingly supplied. In the reconstruction work, however, the organization will have to justify itself on its ability to provide something which will make for the better life of the community and which will be unique among the work carried on by similar organizations.

George Bell, M.P.P., said that conditions all over the world were ominous and dangerous with unrest. The only remedy he declared was honest work, less expenditure and more saving. He said that present day extravagance and dissipation in luxury, which is even now increasing, was a crime and would bring society to a fall if not speedily checked. Mr. Bell went on to say that the Y. M. C. A. could be one of the really effective counteractions to the present orgy of dissipation.

The new staff presented a pair of cuff links to Gordon Graham, who has been in charge of much of the work of the organization during the war period. He is leaving to take up his studies again, going to the University of Toronto.

Dr. Raynor introduced Harold C. Cross, new boys' work secretary, and his wife, and Dr. Morris Thomas introduced W. Aldritt, the new physical director, who was an "original" and who has been in a German prison camp for three years. The new assistant physical director, A. M. Martinson was introduced by M. J. Little, while W. White, who is new house secretary, and Mrs. White were made known by H. T. Knott. Stanley Young, social secretary, was given an eulogy by Fred M. McGregor.

H. G. Estabrook, who has been on convey work during the war, told of the need of what the Y. M. C. A. could offer in helping to combat the unrest in the country.

CONSERVATIVES PREPARE FOR B. C. CONVENTION

Victoria is to have forty delegates at the British Columbia Conservative convention which opens on September 23 at Vancouver. It was announced after a meeting of the ward organizations here. A number of the delegates are to be women.

The Vancouver convention is called to choose a successor to the late Sir Richard McBride. It will be the first provincial convention of the party since 1914.

The Victoria delegates will be appointed at a general meeting of Conservatives in the Belmont House on Thursday, September 18.

Sanich Conservatives chose their delegates last night. They are: Ex-Reeve Joseph Nicholson, J. R. Carmichael, J. Owens, M. P. Cordon, W. O. Wallace, H. W. Herchmer, Percy Scholes, John Jones, Edward Taylor and Norman Jones. Alternates to these are: P. R. Fleming, E. J. Down, F. G. Quick, G. C. Mannix and C. A. Chisholm. These delegates go from Sanich pledged to the support of no one in particular for the leadership.

"THAT'S ALL TO-DAY, THANKS!"

Mrs. Jones lived upon the top floor of a high block of flats, up the stairs of which the poor old postman aged ninety in the shade—was steadily plodding.

The postman reached the fourth floor and delivered the last letter he had for that block of flats that day, when Mrs. Jones leaned over the banisters.

"Anything for me?" she cried. "No, mum," answered the postman, making ready to descend.

"Well, I should like you to come up for a moment all the same!" called Mrs. Jones.

"Very good, mum!" answered the postman, scenting a tip. And, humping up his heavy sack on to his back, he proceeded to climb the remaining four flights of stairs up to Mrs. Jones's flat.

"Well, mum," asked the postman, "and what can I do for you?"

"Oh, nothing," answered Mrs. Jones, and then, turning to her little boy, she added: "I just wanted to show my little boy that sack you carry. Now, you see, Tommy, if you're not good, this is the gentleman who's going to take you away in that big bag! That's all, postman, thank you!"—Tit-Bits.
